158th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
MONDAY, MAY 4, 1942, 5 P. M.

The One Hundred and Fifty-eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above in accordance with the Resolution of the Last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese opened the Session with the Creed and Prayers.

A Quorum being present, the Rev. Richard J. Morris was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. John R. Huggins appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5.30 P. M. on Tuesday, May 5, 1942, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7.45 P. M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 6, 1942, at 9.30 A. M.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Superintendent of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary read the Report:

That on February 1 only 40 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 225 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would remind you again that the Report blank must be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the whole activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the Parish and not merely the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

WHEREAS, The widow of the late Bishop Mackay-Smith, in the deed of trust whereby she conveyed to The Church Foundation the late Bishop's residence and lot adjoining, on South 22nd Street, Philadelphia, and also a maintenance fund of $10,000 for the same, provided that, if the said residence were sold after the expiration of 20 years the net proceeds should be added to the above $10,000, and the whole divided into two equal parts, one of which was to be kept until used for the purchase of another Episcopal Residence or Diocesan Administration House, and other half set up as a permanent fund, the income of which was to be distributed annually by The Church Foundation to and amongst the Clergy of the Diocese receiving not more than the minimum salary and to be received by them in addition to their salaries; and

WHEREAS, The terms of the deed apparently require that the income be equally divided amongst the Clergy entitled to it, and the principal of the fund is so much smaller than the donor probably anticipated, with the result that the amount to be given each Clergyman would be something less than $4.00 annually; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that the total income of something less than $400 a year would accomplish much more good if there were discretion lodged somewhere to distribute it amongst a much smaller number of cases of special need amongst the Clergy of the Diocese;

RESOLVED, That The Church Foundation be requested to confer with the Bishop, the Chairman of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions, and the Chancellor, with a view to investigating the possibilities of obtaining such an interpretation of the Deed of Trust of Mrs. Mackay-

Smith, or such modification of its terms by some proper Court as would simplify the administration of the Trust and increase its possibilities of usefulness.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS read the 3 Resolutions submitted by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, based on the procedure of the Election of a Bishop Coadjutor in 1902, 1911, and 1929, as adopted by the Convention at the Session, May 5:

1. RESOLVED, That Nominations be made and the First Ballot be taken immediately after the Service of the Holy Communion to be celebrated at 9.30 A. M. on Tuesday, May 12, 1942, and that if subsequent Ballots be required, they shall be taken at once after the Announcement of the preceding Ballot.

3. That during the Counting of the Ballot, no other business shall take place.

On Motion, duly seconded, each of the Resolutions was re-affirmed.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS reports further:

That in Voting, write the name of your candidate on a slip of paper to be found at the Ballot Box, and deposit same in the Box. The Clergy vote at the Chancel end of the Church, A to G on North aisle, H to M in Center aisle, N to Z on South aisle. The Lay Deputies vote at the 19th Street end, Suburban and Missions on North side; Advocate, Philadelphia, to S. George, West Philadelphia, in Center aisle; S. James, Hestonville, to Zion, Philadelphia, on South aisle.

The Parishes have one Lay Vote, i.e. the Lay Deputies must agree on their Candidate, and one Deputy deposit the Ballot.

A Concurrent Majority is necessary to a Choice, i.e. 119 Clergy, being one half of the 236 on the List compiled by the Bishop, and 74 Lay Votes, being one half of the 147 Parishes and Missions qualified to vote in this Convention.

But if less than two thirds of either Order be present then two thirds of the Votes of that Order shall be necessary, i.e. only 158 Clergy voting requires 106 to elect; 98 Parishes and Missions voting requires 66 to elect

Therefore, it is important that the attendance be kept up until an Election is accomplished.

When the Election is completed the Clerical and Lay Deputies must sign the Testimonial of Election at the Secretary's desk. We would suggest, if the Convention approves, that this might be done off and on during the counting of the Ballot, saving your time considerably. Of course no name will be on the Testimonial until the Election is complete.

The Chair appointed the following Tellers:

MATILDA LORRILLIERE, known in religion as Mother Matilda, died suddenly the evening of Easter Day. She was a teacher in my first parish in Philadelphia and a wonderful saint of God.

Twelve Happy Years

WHEN, on the fourth day of October, 1929, I was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania, I felt that if God would spare me ten years I might by His blessing accomplish something in this magnificent Diocese. As I was then within three months of the retiring age, I felt that there was little chance for such a thing. I have now been Bishop for over twelve years, and I devoutly thank God for His goodness. He at least has given me an opportunity, and the kindly spirit which pervades the whole Diocese is a matter for devout thankfulness. I feel that our missions are better manned and the meetings of our clergy and laity are in better spirit than was the condition some years ago. Then the meetings were long and tiresome, and the endeavor seemed to be to outwit each other rather than to cooperate for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. I trust that this loving cooperation will be a continuing and ever increasing characteristic of our Diocese.

The twelve years have not been years of national prosperity. Most have been years of depression, but though we have not always met all that the Church in general needed, we have done this in greater measure than have most of the larger Dioceses. We have, so far as I know, never reduced the salaries of any of our missionaries nor abandoned a mission through lack of funds. The Diocesan Campaign which brought promises of $2,022,287, to be paid in five yearly installments, was largely affected by this condition so that only $1,785,715 was received. At the end of three years many of the subscribers were unable to continue. Land had been purchased at a high price, to be paid for in these five installments. When the income failed we were left with mortgages in many cases larger than could then be obtained for the whole property. For a long time we had to meet these semi-annual interest payments, which quite impoverished the Diocese. We have liquidated some of these mortgages, and we hope in a short time to be free from this incubus.

Financially we have done very well in the past year. We met our Expectations of $113,386.46 to the National Council. At the time when we are usually making our final effort to accomplish this, we were also making an extra effort to collect $100,000 for the Episcopal Hospital to commemorate the eightieth birthday of the Bishop. It was a joy that both objects were accomplished. Beside that, from the accumulated surpluses in various funds we have $22,442.88 which can be borrowed without interest to pay all our obligations the day they are due. Thus quite an amount of interest is saved to the Diocese which formerly borrowed the amounts from the bank. Some of our mortgages have been liquidated and others reduced.

We have in these twelve years established the following new work: St. John's, West Oak Lane, which later took the name and assets of St. Matthias Church and is in flourishing condition; St. Faith's, Brookline, has a comfortable chapel and parish house and rectory not entirely paid for; St. Paul's, North Penn, is a flourishing colored work; Holy Spirit Mission, a colored work in South Philadelphia; a work among the hard of hearing, which meets in Holy Trinity Parish House, is most successful; a new work in Delaware County has been started and a piece of ground purchased at Brookthorpe Hills.

We have revived and rebuilt the closed mission of St. Anne, Willow Grove, and have added a beautiful stone church and rectory.

The Church of the Messiah has taken parish status.

We have had 38,464 confirmations—an average of over 3,000 a year; and 215 Ordinations—an average of over 17 a year.

There were two notable celebrations during the present episcopate. The fiftieth anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood was beautifully commemorated at St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia. When asked what gift I would like to commemorate the event, I said, "The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate is sadly insufficient. There is less than $100,000 in this Fund, while the very much smaller Diocese of Tennessee has $1,033,759. We generally have two bishops and to produce their salaries would require a fund several times the present endowment. This necessitates large assessments on the parishes, even to the smallest. I would like an offering taken for that purpose." Accordingly $6,071.88 was given. A public reception was held at the Church House the same afternoon.

As my eightieth birthday was approaching, I was again asked what the Diocese could do to make me happy on that occasion. Without hesitation, I said, "Collect $100,000 for the Episcopal Hospital." I am happy to say that the total sum was collected and presented to me at the notable service commemorating the occasion. That service will remain with me as long as memory lasts. The magnificent singing of the choir of St. Peter's, the soul-touching harp solos and accompaniments of Mrs. Dorothy Johnstone Baseler; the beautiful and touching addresses of Dean Shreiner, Samuel F. Houston, LL.D., the Hon. Roland S. Morris, LL.D., Canon Earp and Dean Taylor were extremely impressive, and the climax was the handing over by the Bishop of the $100,000 to Mr. R. Alexander Montgomery, of the Episcopal Hospital. Bishop Sterrett brought the congratulations of the Third Province; the Presiding Bishop was unable to attend but sent a message by the Rev. Franklin J. Clark, D.D., Secretary of the House of Deputies. Bishop McKinstry honored the occasion with his presence. The church was beautifully adorned and its entrances protected by canopies. Fortunately it did not rain. The magnificent attendance, all remaining until the conclusion, with marked attention to the very end, made it seem worthwhile to reach my patriarchal age.

Dedications, Institutions and Legacies

IN the past year I have dedicated:

The Rood Beam in the Home for Consumptives;

Repairs and improvements in the Church of the Covenant;

The Washburn House at Old Christ Church in memory of the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D.D., the much-beloved former rector;

Colesberry House, an addition to St. Martha's House in memory of that saint of God, Deaconess Jean W. Colesberry; there was also a reredos erected in All Saints, Moyamensing, in memory of her;

The beautiful parish house of St. James' Church, Langhorne;

The repairs and redecoration of St. Augustine's Church;

The Chapel of St. Luke's Church, Kensington;

Appropriate altar fixtures at Holy Comforter, Aronimink; and also at Gloria Dei.

There was a memorial stone walk dedicated in memory of the Rev. A. A. Marple, for many years rector of Christ Church, Upper Merion; three memorial windows also were dedicated.

I preached the sermon at the dedication of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Wilmington in memory of my old friend, Bishop Coleman.

I assisted at the laying of the cornerstone of the Nurses Home at Abington Hospital.

July 23 I was present and made an address at the 25th anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of the Rev. George Copeland.

On November 5 I was present and made an address at the 95th anniversary of Calvary Church, Philadelphia, a memorial to Bishop White.

I have instituted the following, and on each occasion preached the sermon:

May 29—REV. HARVEY D. BUTTERFIELD, rector of St. Luke's Church, Germantown;

June 19—REV. WILLIAM J. ALBERTS, rector of Christ Church, Media;

October 5—REV. JOSEPH C. SETTLE, rector of the Church of the Redemption, Philadelphia;

To the Church Farm School, $2,500 by Mrs. Anna C. Burr;

To St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, $5,000 by Maria E. Blakiston, and about $67,000 by Maria Sargent McCall.

The Woman's Auxiliary

THE Woman's Auxiliary has endeavored, during the past year, to build up a consciousness in the minds of Church women that the work of the Church is a vital factor in bringing the present struggle to a successful conclusion and achieving a more Christian world afterwards; that there is a need for greater effort, deeper conviction, more sacrificial giving. The work of the seven departments has progressed and developed. A Committee for Service to Service Men was created in October. It has provided entertainment and comforts for the Negro regiment protecting this area and has supplied secretarial service for the War Commission of the Diocese. The Auxiliary has cooperated with the Red Cross by obtaining volunteers for Nurses Aide and Gray Lady courses, and also with other war relief organizations.

Interest in the missions of the Diocese has been greatly stimulated by concentrating on them in that Committee. We have received most helpful cooperation from the Deans and heads of the Woman's Aids in the Convocations. Mrs. Ingersoll headed the Committee for Institutions, which functions under the Department of Christian Social Relations. Every opportunity was given to broadcast the Forward in Service program of the Diocese and every woman encouraged to cooperate in helping to carry it out in her parish.

A brief financial summary shows the Auxiliary to have contributed for the year 1941:

$21,504.95	which has counted on parish quotas
27,026.00	for United Thank Offering
6,418.68	for Specials in the Diocese and the General Church
$54,949.63	total

In addition $9,410.34 in sewn and knitted garments made by parishes was sent to the mission field through the Supply Department.

Department of Religious Education

THE records of the Department of Religious Education show that nearly 1800 visitors came to Room 30 last year, and this number is exclusive of those who came for meetings and conferences. The department had working contacts with 180 parishes and missions; 125 volunteers have helped to carry on the tremendous work of this department through committee work, teaching and special jobs. Many of these volunteers gave a great deal of time in teahcing and administering the School of Christian Education (formerly the Normal School) which is in its 22nd year; the Winter and Summer Conferences, which are still very young but very well known for their fine faculties and spirit of fellowship and the 71st Annual Church School Institute, which is known to every one in the Diocese. The total enrollment for these events, last year, was 964.

After overflowing the Church of the Holy Trinity for years, the department held the great diocesan service for the presentation of the Lenten Offering out of doors last year. Over 3000 came to that service on the beautiful grounds of the Episcopal Academy and presented $39,345.80 for the missionary work of the Church. It was a high point of the year. I am looking forward to another great outdoor service this year.

The children of the Church schools also do a great missionary work within the Diocese. Through the Advent Offering they gave $1,117.06 to St. George's, Venango, and St. Monica's for renovation and improvements of buildings, and through the Diocesan Christmas Box secretary 2,484 gifts were distributed to missions and institutions; 697 gifts and $100 were given to missions in the domestic and foreign fields.

Summertime can be used to advantage for the religious education of our children and the 17 Vacation Church Schools held last summer with 945 pupils did good work. I am glad that the Forward in Service Commission has made the promotion of Vacation Church Schools part of their program for this year. The need of them has never been more apparent, especially in the crowded areas, in defense housing projects and trailer camps. All parishes and missions should separately or corporately try to hold one for at least three weeks this summer.

Summer conferences give valuable religious education to our young people and adults. Our Diocesan Summer Conference at Ursinus College with an enrollment of 119, exclusive of faculty and staff, and the Advanced Conference of the Province of Washington provide for the needs of all our communicants and are a good investment.

Through the missionary work of the Church School by Mail, lessons are being mailed to 261 children unable to get to church school in Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Bucks Counties. Living in under-privileged circumstances, in shacks and tenant farm houses, on remote roads and in woods, these children were heretofore unchurched. A total of 469 children have been helped by this work during the past two years, and 133 have become members of the nearest church schools. Some 53 districts were canvassed during the year, 19 public schools visited and 241 visits made to the families.

The Youth Commission has promoted the program of the United Movement of the Church's Youth throughout the year, and the Week Day Religious Education group are preparing for the time when "released time" is granted by the school boards, and are cooperating in those communities where schools are now established.

College Work

IN my address of last year I spoke of college work. Noteworthy developments within the year make me refer to this work again. As we all know, good work is going on at Swarthmore under the leadership of the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther; Dr. Niblo and Mr. Groton are doing as well as circumstances allow at Ursinus; the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, are reaching out in useful ways at Bryn Mawr College; St. Mary's, Ardmore, is doing occasional work at Haverford College, and the Rev. Frederick B. Halsey is making favorable contacts at Beaver College.

For years the Diocese has spent such sums as it could for college work at the college wherein were the greatest number of our own students, namely, the University of Pennsylvania, where, for the past two and a half years our work has been under the direction of Canon James Howard Jacobson. With the recent addition for our work of a first floor chapel in the Christian Association Building, and with excellent student leadership for the ensuing year, our opportunities for good work at Pennsylvania have never been so favorable.

Out of all these promising opportunities, out of the belief that the world is ripe for religious revival, and out of the assurance of history that most spiritual revivals have come from colleges and universities, it is with real pride that I announce the formation of the Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions. This was authorized by the Convention of 1941, and permits this Diocese to be ranked with the few others pioneering in this, the Church's newest mission field. Already this corporation has held a successful clergy conference and conducted excellent surveys of those various college centers in which we must work.

I am convinced with Canon Barry of Westminster that "Christianity will never again be strong till the Church has regained the allegiance of the educated and professional classes." May I commend to your prayers and support the work of this new corporation and urge upon you the importance of being informed as to its work and purpose.

The Divinity School

THE Divinity School is completing its fifth successful year under the new plan of theological education. It has passed the experimental stage and the value of clinical pastoral training, integrated with theological studies, was formally recognized at the meeting of the Standing Joint Commission of General Convention on Theological Education, at St. Louis, by the following resolution: "This Commission wishes to emphasize the value of Clinical Pastoral Training." This year marks the second observance of National Theological Sunday. The date for this Sunday next year will be set by the Presiding Bishop for January 24, 1943, and in subsequent years it will be observed on the Sunday nearest St. Paul's Day each year. It is my earnest hope that every parish in the Diocese will observe this Sunday and take an offering for some seminary of the Church. As the Bishop of Pennsylvania, I believe this offering should properly be designated to the Philadelphia School because it is situated within our own Diocese.

The Galilee Mission

THE Galilee Mission is still doing a wonderful work in that part of the city which formerly had the worst police reports. Mr. George W. Wilkins devotes his life to the uplifting of men. Statistics for the year 1941 show:

Chapel Attendance	28,733
Sunday School Membership	425
Sunday School Attendance	16,950
Confessed Conversions	1,867
Meals	102,224
Lodgings	49,925
Clothing Distributed	1,950
Employment Secured	685

Every night a service is held and members of our Church and others interested in mankind would get a thrill by attending.

Joint Commission on Evangelism and the Forward Movement

DURING the year the Joint Commission continued to supervise the execution of the Presiding Bishop's plan of Forward in Service in this Diocese. The commission acted as a clearing house in most activities enlisting the aid of the Department of Religious Education, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Field Department, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Retreat Association, the Church Club, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the War Commission and various Convocations. Most of the activities in which Forward in Service had a share will be reported by these various agencies. Among the activities purely concerned with the promotional side of Forward in Service may be mentioned conferences for the clergy and laity, a number of articles in THE CHURCH NEWS, a printed calendar for the year, a campaign for Family Worship during Epiphany, and a very successful School of Prayer in Advent, with approximately 90 parishes and missions cooperating.

The Diocesan War Commission

THE War Commission was appointed by the Bishop on Thursday, December 18, 1941. Its purpose was to assist the Church in meeting the opportunities and the problems created by the war. To most effectively achieve this end it divided itself into five committees: Civilian Defense, Our Armed Forces, Defense Population, Our Own, and Army and Navy Chaplains Fund. The Committee on Civilian Defense has put resources of the Church—buildings, institutions, man-power—at the disposal of defense authorities, keeping the Diocese aware of ways in which it might cooperate with these authorities. Knowing the vital importance of our Church being kept with the men in the service, the Committee on Ministry to Our Armed Forces has sought to cooperate with the chaplains, assist in ministering to the needs of men stationed in our Diocese, cooperate with the U. S. O. and Red Cross. Thus the men who have gone into the armed forces from our parishes have been commended to their chaplains, sent Prayer Books and war crosses. On Good Shepherd Sunday each man received a letter from the Bishop enclosing a war cross which had been blessed. Through groups of women from the Girls' Friendly Society and the Woman's Auxiliary entertainment and refreshments have been furnished the troops stationed in the city. Assistance is being lent to the chaplain at the Navy Yard and to those with the troops as they desire it.

Philadelphia is defense industry center number one in our country. One hundred thousand workers have come or are coming to the city. They are locating near their industries, in defense housing projects and even in trailer camps. The Committee on Ministry to Defense Population has made a survey and secured an overall picture of this new missionary field. It has made recommendations to the Deans as to methods of carrying on the work and is now busy assisting wherever possible. In the rapidly changing, chaotic times, which is life at the moment, the Committee on Ministry to Our Own People has sought to aid the clergy in ministering more effectively to their people. A booklet of war-time prayers has been issued. Continual suggestions as to carrying on the ordinary work of the Church in these extraordinary times are being made. The Committee on the Army and Navy Fund is seeking to raise from the Diocese the moneys necessary to carry on the work of the National Commission appointed by the Presiding Bishop headed by Bishop Sherrill. That unusual problems and opportunities are before us is recognized by all. That there shall be seized and redeemed for and by the Lord is the determination of the War Commission.

Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House

BY deed of trust sometime after his death, the widow of Bishop Mackay-Smith conveyed to The Church Foundation his residence on South 22nd Street to be held for the use of the Diocese either as an Episcopal residence or as a diocesan administration house. The Annual Convention of 1934 directed that The Church Foundation should sell the Memorial House "with the advice of the Standing Committee." The house has not been in use since the death of Mrs. Garland. Owing to its very large size and the deterioration of the locality for residence purposes and the large number of properties for sale in the neighborhood, no worth while offers were received until early in 1941; when a sale for $16,000, of which $6,000 was cash and the balance a mortgage, was made by The Church Foundation upon the advice of the Standing Committee and after careful consideration of all the facts and consultation with real estate experts. The sale of the property saves the Diocese some $1,700 yearly in taxes, insurance and upkeep. In accordance with the terms of the deed of trust, The Church Foundation added the net proceeds to the fund which Mrs. Mackay-Smith had given it to help maintain the house, and then divided the total into two funds, one known as The Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House Fund, and the other as The Bishop Mackay-Smith Clergy Salary Fund, each having a total of about $11,000 principal. It is my hope that some property that has a tender association in the minds of some people may be donated for a Bishop's residence. The other fund's income is to be distributed in some manner not yet determined among the clergy of the Diocese not receiving more than the minimum salary.

"My Desire for a Coadjutor"

IN my first address as Bishop of Pennsylvania, I stated that Pennsylvania, second only to New York in communicant membership and financial ability, greater than New York in historical background, holds an enviable position. Its territory is not half the size of the Diocese of New York, having only 2182 square miles as against New York's 4763 square miles. Nor do we have half the population, so that The Living Church of April 4, 1931, says, "This would indicate that Philadelphia, in spite of her Quaker traditions, is a greater stronghold of the Church than any other city in the United States." I want her always to be such.

Shortly after my election, I received a letter from the rector of one of our most important parishes. It says: "It may be suggestive to you to recall the preamble and resolution which some of us forwarded to Dr. Drury: 'Whereas, It would appear that the repeated refusals to accept election have been at least in part due to a disinclination to undertake such exacting administrative and institutional responsibilities as are increasingly burdening the Episcopate in our American diocese; therefore be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting, reflecting the sentiment not only of clergy and laymen but also of influential and devoted churchwomen, that whoever is now chosen to be our Bishop Coadjutor should be fully assured of our desire that he should be free to leave the serving of tables for the most part to willing assistants, and to give himself to prayer and the ministry of the Word.'" We have as magnificent a body of clergy and laymen as are found in any Diocese, and I have not hesitated to call upon them for very heavy labors which they have unhesitatingly accepted and splendidly carried out.

It was a surprise to many when I announced my desire for a Coadjutor. And when I announced that I expected to resign on All Saints Day, 1943, it was almost a surprise to myself. I had not thought of it until a day or so before. It is not that I do not feel able to do the work. It is a great joy to me. Two things motivated me. There may be many, though I do not know them, who may say, "Why do we trust so important a work to a man of four score years. May not his judgment be failing?" Perhaps the man himself may think that the judgment of every one except himself is failing. I do know, however, that sudden death is more likely with older people, and that a Diocese as large and important as this should be prepared for this emergency. I heard of Bishop Garland's death on Sunday, March 1, at 7 P. M. I conducted a service at 8 P. M., and by August 1 I had absorbed all of his engagements. There was no shock and no excitement as to who would be his successor. I have seen so many Bishops working after their physical powers were exhausted, that I thank the Lord for the health He has given me and turn the work over to a younger man. Any way in which I can help my successor will be a joy, but I will never interfere with his direction.

I commend you brethren to the grace of God and pray that His richest blessing may fall upon our Diocese and upon each member individually.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

GOUVERNEUR FRANK MOSHER, Second Bishop of the Missionary District of the Philippine Islands, died on July 19, 1941, in the seventieth year of his age, at the Midtown Hospital, New York City, after a long illness. He was born at Stapleton, New York, on October 28, 1871, receiving his early education at the State Normal School in Albany, the Albany Academy, Union College, and The Berkeley Divinity School, where he graduated in 1896. He was made Deacon that same year by Bishop John Williams, serving as Curate for six months at Saint Bartholomew's Church, New York City, when he decided to go to China. In 1898 he was ordained Priest by Bishop F. R. Graves, and for two years he was Rector of the Church of Our Saviour and of Saint Peter's Church, Shanghai. In 1902 he started Holy Cross Mission in Wusih, remaining there for eighteen years. He was a member of the Council of Advice of the Province of Kiangsu in 1915 and 1916, when he was elected its President. He served as Deputy to the General Convention in 1904, 1910, and 1916. On February 25, 1920, he was consecrated Bishop by Bishops F. R. Graves, H. S. Tucker, and D. T. Huntington, assisted by the Anglican Bishops. In 1940 he was compelled to resign because of ill health, and returned to this country.

PAUL JONES, Resigned Bishop of the Missionary District of Utah, died at his home in Yellow Springs, Ohio, after several months' illness, on September 4, 1941, in the sixty-first year of his age. He was born at Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, on November 24, 1880, graduating from Yale University in 1902 and from the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Cambridge in 1906, being made Deacon that same year by Bishop Talbot and ordained Priest a few months later by Bishop Spalding. From 1906 to 1911 he was Associate Priest at Saint John's Mission, Logan, Utah, and Priest in Charge for three years more, serving as Secretary of the Convocation from 1907 to 1914. In 1914 he became Rector of Saint Peter's Church and of Saint John's Church, Salt Lake City, Utah. Shortly after his arrival Bishop Spaulding was killed in an automobile accident and he was elected Bishop, being consecrated on December 16, 1914, by Bishops Tuttle, Nichols, and Johnson. For four years he laboured continually and successfully, resigning in 1918 at the request of the House of Bishops because of his extreme ideas concerning Socialism and Communism. For two years he served as Missionary at Brownsville Junction, Maine, and in 1919 as Acting Bishop of Southern Ohio. In 1920 he became Chaplain and Professor of Religion at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, where he remained until his death. From 1920 to 1929 he was Secretary of the Fellowship of Reconcilliation. Of attractive manner and personality he made many friends wherever he went.

JAMES RIDOUT WINCHESTER, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Arkansas, died in Chicago, Illinois, on October 27, 1941, after an illness of five weeks, in the ninetieth year of his age. He was born at Annapolis, Maryland, on March 15, 1852, receiving his early education in the Public Schools, at the Episcopal High School in Alexandria, and at Washington and Lee University. He graduated from the Alexandria Seminary in 1877, being made Deacon that same year and ordained Priest in 1878 by Bishop Whittle. He served his Diaconate as Curate at Saint James' Church, Richmond, becoming Rector of Holy Cross, Uniontown, Alabama, in 1878. Two years later he accepted a Call to Saint John's Church, Wyethville, leaving there in 1882 to become Rector of Christ Church, Nashville, Tennessee. In 1898 he went to St. Louis, Missouri, as Rector of Ascension Church, and in 1905 accepted a Call to Calvary Church, Memphis. On September 29, 1911, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Arkansas by Bishops Tuttle, Weed, and Kingsolving. becoming the Sixth Bishop of that Diocese when Bishop Brown resigned in 1912. He retired from active work in 1931. A Deputy to General Conventions from 1886 to 1911 from the various Dioceses where he happened to be resident. He was also Chaplain of many Societies and a prominent member of the Masonic Order.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts, died very suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Readville, Massachusetts, on November 6, 1941, in the ninety-second year of his age. He was thus the senior Bishop of the Church, both in years and in precedence, having been born in Boston on May 30, 1850, and consecrated in 1895. Attending the Public Schools in Boston, he graduated from Harvard University in 1871 and from the Episcopal Theological Seminary in 1875, being made Deacon that same year and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Paddock. In 1876 he was Curate at Grace Church, Lawrence, serving as Rector from 1877 to 1883, when he became Professor of Homiletics at The Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge and Dean of the same in 1886. On October 5, 1893, he was consecrated Seventh Bishop of Massachusetts by Bishops Williams, Clark, and Neely, resigning in 1927. Following his retirement he was for a time in charge of the Foreign Congregations in Europe. Bishop Lawrence was distinctly an outstanding figure in Church affairs and in civic life. The author of several books, he served as Trustee and President of Wellesley College, as Trustee of Groton and Saint Mark's Schools, as Overseer at Harvard University, receiving fourteen Honorary Degrees. He was Chairman of the House of Bishops and President of the First Province in 1914; Chairman of the Church War Commission from 1916 to 1918, and of the Commission on Business Methods in 1925. But his outstanding and best remembered work will always be the establishment of The Church Pension Fund, first in his own Diocese and in 1914 throughout the Church at large, which has brought so much benefit to the Clergy and their families, and won for him the loving title of "The Banker Bishop."

WILSON REIFF STEARLY, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Newark, died on November 8, 1941, at his home in Melrose Park, New Jersey, in the seventy-third year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on May 8, 1869, attending the Public Schools and graduating from Union Seminary, New York City, in 1890, when he entered the Ministry of the Reformed Church. In 1912 he became Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Montclair, New Jersey. He was consecrated Bishop Suffragan of Newark October 21, 1915, by Bishops Lines, Whitehead, and Talbot, becoming Bishop Coadjutor in 1917 and Bishop of the Diocese in 1927, until 1935, when he was compelled to retire because of ill health.

He was born in South Manchester, Connecticut, on August 23, 1882, graduating from Trinity College in 1904 and from Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 1908, when he was made Deacon by Bishop Brewster, and ordained to the Priesthood that same year by Bishop Scadding. From 1908 to 1910 he was Missionary at Grant's Pass, Oregon. Returning to the East in 1911, he became Vicar of Christ Chapel, Brooklyn, New York, where he remained until 1917, when he accepted a Call as Rector of Saint John's Church, West Hoboken, New Jersey. One year later he returned to South Dakota, as Priest in Charge of Saint Mark's Church, Aberdeen, and Dean of the Northern Deanery. In 1923 he accepted a Call as Rector of Saint Paul's Church, St. Louis, Missouri; resigning in 1926 to become General Secretary of the Field Department of The National Council. On December 16, 1931, he was consecrated Bishop of the Missionary District of North Dakota by Bishops Burleson, Sanford, and Ingley, resigning in 1935 to accept appointment as Sixth Missionary Bishop of the District of Idaho and in 1940 also as Fifth Missionary Bishop in charge of the District of New Mexico. From 1932 to 1937 he served as Executive Secretary of the Department of Domestic Missions of The National Council.

In 1913 he was elected Bishop of Dallas, but declined the election. On September 29, 1915, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York by Bishops Tuttle, Weller, and Olmstead and Third Bishop of that Diocese on March 26, 1924, at the death of Bishop Olmstead. In 1936 he was forced to resign because of ill health. Always a forceful and attractive preacher, his services were in great demand, especially during Lent and at the Noon-Day Services. For two years he assisted the Bishop at the Confirmations in this Diocese.

WILLIAM LOYALL GRAVATT, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of West Virginia, died at his home in Charleston on February 14, 1942, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. By a remarkable coincidence his wife died on the same day. He was born in Port Royal, Virginia, on December 15, 1859, receiving his early education in private schools and at the Virginia Polytechnic HENRY JUDAH MIKELL, Second Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta, died on February 20, 1942, from a heart attack, in a hospital at Sewanee, Tennessee, where he had been for two weeks since his return from the meeting of The House of Bishops in Florida, aged sixty-eight years. On November 1, 1917, he was consecrated Bishop of Atlanta by Bishops Gailor, Weed, and Gray. For many years he was a Trustee of the University of The South, being elected Chancellor in 1938, and a Trustee of The DuBose Training School at Monteagle.

HERMAN PAGE, Retired Bishop of Michigan, died at his home in Ann Arbor, Michigan, after a six-weeks' illness, on April 21, 1942, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He was born in Boston, Massachusetts, on May 22, 1866, receiving his early education at the Boston Latin School, Harvard University, and at the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge. He was the author of several Devotional Manuals.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania wishes to place on record its sense of sorrow and personal loss in the death of Parker Shortridge Williams. Mr. Williams had been a member of the Committee for eleven years, and during the greater part of this period had served as chairman of its Charter Committee. His knowledge of law and banking, and his wide experience in both fields, made him a most valuable member of the Standing Committee.

His innate charity and courtesy gave a Christian reasonableness to all his opinions and decisions. His judgment in regard to prospective Candidates for Holy Orders was discerning, fair, and just. The Candidates under his supervision always spoke of him with great admiration.

Those who served with Mr. Williams on the Standing Committee placed a high value on his friendship The places in diocesan life occupied by such men as Mr Williams are hard to fill. We shall hold him in grateful and prayerful remembrance.

May he rest in peace.

The Standing Committee authorized The Church Foundation to hold such funds, after the payment of unpaid taxes and mortgage, as may remain from the sale of 3400 Englewood Street, Mayfair, Philadelphia, in the account of The Church of the Resurrection, and to invest the proceeds according to its own judgment, holding same as a fund for future building operations in the said Parish until otherwise directed by the Parish, the Bishop, and the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee voted to accept the increase in assessment from $2.00 to $2.50 for each canonical resident clergyman which was voted by the Provincial Synod at its meeting on October 22, 1941.

The Standing Committee, a majority of lay members voting in the affirmative, approved the sale by Christ Church and St. Michael's of St. Michael's Church, situate at 222 High Street, Germantown, Philadelphia.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the sale of the premises 517 York Avenue, Philadelphia, formerly the Rectory of the Church of the Advent, Philadelphia, with the understanding that the net proceeds of the sale be added to the endowment funds now held by the Church of the Advent.

The Standing Committee gave its approval to changes in the Charter of St. Peter's Church, Germantown, Philadelphia.

The Standing Committee approved the Charter of the merged parishes of Grace Church and the Church of the Incarnation.

Bishop Taitt met with the Standing Committee on March 3, 1942, and made the following statement to the Standing Committee:

That, since he had now reached the age of eighty, he would ask the Diocesan Convention in May, 1942, to elect a Bishop Coadjutor to assist him in the work of administering the Diocese upon the grounds of his age, according to Canon 13, Section II (1), of General Convention.

That he proposed to resign as Bishop of Pennsylvania on All Saints Day, November 1, 1943.

That when a Bishop Coadjutor should be consecrated and take office, he, Bishop Taitt, would expect his salary thereafter to be paid on the basis of $10,000 a year instead of $15,000 a year, the present rate, and that the present automobile allowance of $2,400 a year would be continued.

That he believed a yearly salary of $10,000, plus a house and automobile allowance, to be proper for the Bishop Coadjutor.

That he would place under the jurisdiction of the Bishop Coadjutor the Convocations of North Philadelphia, South Philadelphia, and West Philadelphia, and that he, Bishop Taitt, would retain under his jurisdiction the Convocations of Chester, Norristown, and Germantown and the other duties now performed by the Diocese.

The Standing Committee suggested to the Bishop that, after his retirement, the Diocese should pay him annually $5,000 as a retirement allowance in addition to the $1,500 which he would receive from the Church Pension Fund. The Bishop expressed his appreciation.

It was agreed that the statement made by the Bishop to the Standing Committee and the arrangements agreed upon should be stated formally in a letter from the Bishop to the Standing Committee and the Standing Committee's reply.

It was further agreed that after the Bishop had announced to the Diocesan Convention in May, 1942, that he would ask them to elect a Bishop Coadjutor, that the Standing Committee would request that the election be placed as the last order of business of the Convention and that, when this point in the order of business should be reached, the Convention adjourn to meet at 9.30 A. M. on Tuesday, May 12, 1942, when the only matter of business would be the election of a Bishop Coadjutor. In this way the usual business of the Convention could be conducted without the distraction of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, and it would not be necessary to issue a call for a Special Convention with all the accompanying details.

Subsequently, letters passed between the Bishop and the President of the Standing Committee according to the statement of the Bishop at the March meeting of the Standing Committee, and a procedure was agreed upon for the President of the Standing Committee to present to the Convention so as to put into effect the plan as agreed upon between the Bishop and the Standing Committee concerning a Bishop Coadjutor.

The Standing Committee advised the Bishop not to agree to the transfer of status of St. John's Free Church from that of an aided parish to a Missionary Parish, under Canon VIII, Section 5.

WILLIAM H. DUBARRY,
Secretary.

MEMORANDUM ON THE FORMER EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE ON SOUTH TWENTY-SECOND STREET, AND TRUST CONNECTED THEREWITH

Under date of January 2, 1912, Mrs. Mackay-Smith wrote Dr. Perry the Chairman of the Standing Committee, referring to the fact that Bishop Mackay-Smith had written the Standing Committee before his death, stating his wish to present his residence to the Diocese with certain stipulations, but that he had died intestate. In order to carry out his wishes, however, she submitted the following proposition: She would execute a Deed for the Episcopal Residence on certain conditions expressed in the letter, and would add another $5,000 to a fund of $5,000 which she had already established to be used toward the maintenance of the property. If the house should be sold at any time, the maintenance fund should be added to the principal accruing from the sale. The foregoing is summarized from a copy possessed by The Church Foundation of the original letter, which must be somewhere in the stored-away files of the Standing Committe. The trusts mentioned in the letter were later incorporated in a Deed of May 15, 1912, by which Mrs. Mackay-Smith deeded to the trustees the residence and ground on which it stood "in trust nevertheless for the uses, persons, and purposes and with the powers following:

"In Trust to hold the said real estate which, so long as it shall be held unsold by said Trustees, is to be known as 'The Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House' and is to be used as an Episcopal Residence or an administration House of the Diocese.

"In Trust, with power at any time to sell and convey the said real estate and to make good deed or deeds of conveyance thereof in fee simple, without obligation on the part of the purchaser or purchasers to see to or be responsible for the application of the purchase money.

"In Trust if said sale and conveyance be made after the expiration of a period of Twenty years' use of the premises for the purpose aforesaid, then to hold one-half the proceeds of sale to be used for the purchase or erection of other real estate in the City of Philadelphia, to be used as an Episcopal Residence or administration House of the Diocese, to be called 'The Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House,' and to hold the other one-half of said fund to be invested by the said Trustees as 'The Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial Fund,' with power to invest and reinvest, alter, vary, and change investments, and to appropriate the income thereof annually to and amongst the clergy in charge of parishes or missions in the Diocese who shall be receiving a salary not exceeding the minimum salary fixed by Canon, and to be used by the recipients in addition to such salary.

"In Trust in case said sale and conveyance be made before the expiration of a period of Twenty years use of the premises for the purpose aforesaid, then to hold the whole of the proceeds of sale invested as aforesaid, as 'The Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial Fund' and to devote the whole income thereof in aid of the clergy receiving salaries not exceeding the minimum as aforesaid.

"In Trust, in case a sale be made after Twenty years and during a period of Five years after such sale there shall be no use of the moiety of the proceeds allowed to be used in the purchase or erection of an Episcopal Residence or Administration House of the Diocese, then the moiety thus permitted to be used, after the expiration of said period of Five years, shall be held as a fund In Trust for the purpose of appropriating the income thereof as aforesaid, in aid of clergy receiving such salaries not exceeding the minimum as aforesaid. Portions of the property which, in the judgment of the Trustees, cannot be used advantageously for the primary purposes, may be rented from time to time, provided the net rental be appropriated in aid of the clergy receiving salaries not exceeding the minimum fixed by Canon, as aforesaid.

"In Trust, as to said fund of Five thousand dollars ($5,000) to hold the same, with like powers of investment and reinvestment, and to appropriate the income thereof, so long as said real estate shall be used as an Episcopal Residence or Administration House of the Diocese, in and about the maintenance of the property.

"In Trust as to said fund, in case the real estate shall be sold at any time, then to add said fund of Five thousand dollars ($5,000) and to hold the same as the proceeds of sale are directed to be held under the provisions hereof."

The above is quoted from a photostat copy of Deed supplied by the Rev. Mr. Hartshorne; a second Deed of October 17, 1919, conveyed additional property adjoining the property originally conveyed. It set forth the same trusts as the earlier Deed.

The residence having now been sold (see Jnl., 1941, p. 235) for a total price of $15,000, there results a fund approximately $15,000, plus $10,000, of which one half is allocated under the terms of the governing trust, to increasing the salaries of the lowest paid clergy; and the other one half for the same purpose unless used for the purchase of a new residence within five years from the date of sale of the 22nd Street residence in 1941.

Prior to the sale of the residence on 22nd Street the income from the $10,000 Maintenance Fund was regularly paid over to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the Trustees of the Diocese and their Successor, The Church Foundation, and was accounted for by him under the title "Episcopal Residence Fund." (See e.g. Jnl., 1925, p. 293; Jnl., 1930, p. 255, item 257; Jnl., 1936, p. 256, item 230; Jnl., 1940, p. 268, item 271.)

Since the sale of the residence on 22nd Street the use of the income from the Maintenance Fund to maintain this residence naturally ceases. There is no authority conferred by the trust to use it for any other purpose. The trustee will presumably add it to principal.

Respectfully submitted,

SPENCER ERVIN.

December 25, 1941.

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, 1941

The Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1941, audited by Charles S. Rockey and Company, Certified Public Accountants, is submitted herewith.

The form of the report has been changed slightly in the hope that the financial operations of the Diocese may be more clearly set forth.

The Diocese paid its expectation to the National Council, amounting to $113,386.46, and all current operating bills for 1941. Only through the hard work and self sacrifice of the clergy and laity throughout the Diocese was this record made possible in these trying times.

Payments on expectations by parishes and missions, summarized, were as follows:

2 paid nothing;
25 paid in part;
23 paid in full;
146 exceeded their expectation; in this group 13 equalled the quota set by the Diocese; and 48 paid more than the quota.

The books of the Treasurer show no cash balance in the Missionary Fund, the excess of receipts over expenditures being transferred to the Diocesan surplus account.

Bank balances were maintained in sufficient volume throughout the year to avoid overdrafts.

Thanks and appreciation are due the Parishes and Missions and to the Woman's Auxiliary as well as other organizations of the Diocese for their assistance. The financial staff of the Treasurer's office gave efficient and faithful service. Particular mention should be made of the many helpful suggestions given the Treasurer's department by Spencer Ervin, Esquire, Vice President of the Executive Council.

A. V. MORTON,
Treasurer.

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON,
Assistant Treasurer.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council

In February, 1941, the Executive Secretary of the Diocese, the Rev. Frederick Percival Houghton, D.D, a Chaplain in the Reserve Corps of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, was called into service with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, and early in March he left for active duty with the troops, and since then has not been available to the Diocese.

In March, 1941, occurred the lamented death, after a short illness, of the Ven. James Fry Bullitt, since 1925 Archdeacon in charge of work with the foreign born. The Report of the Department of Missions, which he served as secretary for many years, as he did this Council, speaks of his faithfulness, courtesy and dependability. A minute, written by the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne and adopted at the April Meeting of the same Department, deserves quotation:

"James Fry Bullitt was a man who quite early and definitely dedicated his life to the Church he loved and desired to serve. Son of a prominent Philadelphia lawyer and business man, he would naturally, as things were in those days in Philadelphia, have gone along the line of least resistance, and of most promising prospects, and followed in his father's footsteps. But, after a brief period as a lawyer he sacrificed the opportunities he would probably have had in such a career and decided to prepare for the Ministry at the Philadelphia Divinity School, where his more than usual earnestness impressed his classmates.

"Most of his parochial ministry was passed outside of this Diocese, and he had virtually retired and settled down to live in Princeton, New Jersey, when Bishop Garland persuaded him to come back to the Diocese and help him, with his legal and business knowledge and his familiarity with the Diocese, in the administration of the missionary work. Eventually he came to be in charge of our work among the foreign born, a task which called for the patience and sympathy which he possessed in large degree.

"But we will all think of him chiefly as occupying those offices which he filled with such ability and unfailing urbanity, the secretaryship of this Department and that of the Council itself, for many years. In both, his minutes were marvels of accuracy and adequacy, and his conduct one of self-effacement, always ready to give of that large fund of information which was his, but never volunteering his own views. Not that he did not have convictions, for we know that he had, and under appropriate circumstances was ready to express them, but never with unkind or sarcastic criticism of others. Especially will we remember him as invariably displaying that courtesy of speech and manner which we are accustomed to speak of as characteristic of a 'gentleman of the old school.' But, better still, he showed in his life and in his contacts with others a more than usual number of those qualities which always have and always will mark a man as a Christian gentleman. To have known and been associated with him was a great privilege. While we shall miss him, we would not begrudge him the rest he so well earned; but to his family, in their loss, we extend our sincere sympathy."

The death of Mr. Bullitt and the departure of Dr. Houghton have so reduced the executive staff of Diocesan headquarters that it is questionable whether we can wait much longer before recruiting it to greater strength. The business of a Diocese of 76,000 communicants requires a headquarters staff of some size to handle its large and multifarious financial and miscellaneous business. It must be remembered also that for the twenty years from 1911 to 1931 there were two bishops in the Diocese; that from 1920 to 1933 and again from 1937 to 1941 we had an executive secretary; and from 1920 to 1938 a deputy treasurer or controller, the late Mr. Radcliffe. We now have one bishop, no executive secretary, and no deputy treasurer.

The Diocese needs a controller, and it also needs a qualified social service executive. We must awake to the fact that devoted volunteer service can never replace the professional: the man especially trained by study and experience, for the very task he is to perform. Such men in an organization of any size are essential if results are to be obtained proportionate to the effort made. They coordinate, direct and carry out, and largely shape, wise policies. The longer they remain in service the more reliable they become.

The work among the foreign born formerly managed by Mr. Bullitt has now been assigned to the Deans of Convocation in whose territory are the congregations in question, an arrangement perhaps preferable from the viewpoint of administration.

The Deans of South and of West Philadelphia call attention to the new housing areas and to the importance of ministering to the people in them. The Dean of Germantown mentions the necessity of wide spacing of Diocesan missions, "for in these days of easy transportation the greatest need seems to be to have fewer and stronger parishes."

The Department of Publicity has been reorganized and now has a sizable board which meets monthly to decide questions of policy and to advise the director. Attention is called to the Department's appended report, showing many responsibilities beside the publication of The Church News. The Executive Council, at its meeting of October 10, approved the following declaration made by the Department at its meeting of September 25:

"That it is the duty of the Department of Publicity to direct general policies in regard to Diocesan public relations, details of which are entrusted to an experienced Director of Publicity."

"That the general supervision of The Church News is a responsibility of the Department, and that the Director of Publicity is charged with the details of its management, for which he shall be responsible to the Department.

"That matters of editorial and business policy affecting The Church News shall be dictated by the Department and carried out by the Director of Publicity in his capacity as Managing Editor."

The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions will change its name to accord with the new title adopted by the corresponding Department of the National Council: The Department of Christian Social Relations. A most interesting proposal advocated by the Department is that for prison chapels. Religious services in prisons are now conducted under great handicaps. Every prison ought to have an adequate chapel fitted so as to make it usable by different communions.

The Department of Religious Education continued its excellent services. Its winter and summer conferences were well attended, and its Church School by Mail and Vacation Church Schools are developing remarkably.

Attention is called to the rules announced by the Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry to govern its grants to men who desire to study for Holy Orders.

The Report of the Department of Finance shows that during the year 1941 payments from the Mortgage Redemption Fund aggregated $19,262. $1,000 of these payments have been matched, thus adding that much more to the sum paid off. Payments from other Diocesan funds and other "matchings" add $1,700 more, so that the grand total of mortgage debt reduction in the year through Diocesan action was $21,962. This, of course, is apart from any reductions made by the parishes independently.

In the Missionary Account, when the year ended, was a surplus of $11,142, since reduced by $3,500 voted to the Diocesan vicars—$100 to each man—as a gift from the Diocese. The surplus represents failure to fill vacancies in the executive staff and though fortunate in one sense, should not be the basis of a forecast of prosperity.

The reports of the Departments and of the Convocations follow.

Respectfully submitted,
SPENCER ERVIN,
Vice-President.

March 13, 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions (which title we are asking the Diocesan Convention to change to the Department of Christian Social Relations, to conform with the title of the National Department) takes an interest in everything and every movement that has to do with the welfare of the people and the institutions of the Diocese, and keeps in close relationship with the social agencies of the community and the State and with such organizations as the Pennsylvania Federation of Churches.

It does not seek to duplicate the activities of existing bodies but to supplement them. This prevents overlapping and at the same time gives additional weight to our cooperation. We have not organized separate refugee aid committees and committees for help with the men in the army, as the Church is well organized along these lines and our members are closely associated with one or more of them, but by keeping in close touch with them, we are able by conference and suggestion to render real help. In other words, we act as liaison officers and coordination factors. We work in close harmony with the Woman's Auxiliary which is doing an increasingly good work.

The Negro problem is a pressing and difficult one and our Committees are seeking to aid in its solution. We helped in defeating the effort of the Government to divert the Richard Allen Homes for low income families. In our letter we set forth that the Department was wholeheartedly in favor of the Housing Authority keeping its promise of allotting 1,324 units of the Richard Allen Homes for low income families, only to meet a crying need, not to say emergency. It has been pointed out that a view of the facts will show that an emergency is already at our doors. There is a shortage of good homes, especially for the low income group. About 350 families of the 1,400 certified for occupancy of the project are those who can never secure work in a defense plant, as well as those who because of age or infirmity are suffering all kinds of privation and may be the cause of a serious epidemic in the city. A large proportion of those who would be deprived of these homes are also persons who cannot and will not be provided for through any other means and yet they are the domestic workers in our homes, the maintenance workers in many of our industries and others who, although not defense workers in the ordinary sense, are vital to the civilian morale of our city. Many of them now suffer because rents have increased while they themselves have had no increase in income. Is it fair to ask them to bear the burden of defense out of all proportion to the rest of our citizens?

Dr. Young, chairman of the committee to consider the needs of St. Michael and All Angels, reports that his committee had gone over the entire neighborhood of 43rd and Wallace Streets, and studied the two buildings used as church and parish houses. His report recognizes the need of a good building for institutional work and observes that "the priest and the church committee need the following gifts to assist them in accomplishing their work: Fifty chairs for adult use, about ten tons of coal and about ten gallons of paint, and your committee (representing this Department) gladly submits this recommendation for St. Michael and All Angels Church and urges its endorsement by our Department." A motion that the Department adopt the recommendation of the Committee was adopted. This was followed by another motion, to refer this need to the attention of the Woman's Aid of the West Philadelphia Convocation.

This Department has no money at its disposal to help along these lines and can help only by interesting Church people in such projects by definite suggestions.

It is a pleasure to report that the work at St. John's Settlement is progressing so satisfactorily—a fact that is recognized by the Negro leaders of the city. Its budget has been submitted to and approved by the Department.

In the matter of the Christian Settlement Mission, Bishop Taitt addressed a letter to the Mission on July 2, 1941, setting forth six points to be observed, and requesting an answer by October 1. A reply from Miss Lutes of September 30, 1941, addressed to the Bishop, declared "we do not wish and never have wished" the approval of the Department of Christian Social Service. The records show that such a request had been made and as a result of an investigation made by a Committee of the Department, consisting of Dean Springer, Spencer Ervin and George R. Bedinger, the Executive Council refused to endorse the mission as a Church institution. Miss Lutes mentioned a letter that she declared she had received several years ago in which she said the Bishop had expressed approval of their work. This letter has not been produced, and no record of it can be found in the Church House. The Bishop has expressed his intention of stating that the Diocese does not recommend or commend the Settlement.

The Department has been strongly back of the new Parole Bill and is working against the present effort to postpone its enforcement.

Being a Department of Church Institutions as well as of social service activities generally, we have followed the development of interest in the proposition that the Diocese employ a social service secretary to devote his or her whole time to the work of the Department and especially to coordinate the work that is being done in and for the institutions bearing the Church's name and to bring them more closely in contact with the Department and the Executive Council. The Chairman of the Department appeared before the Finance Committee of the Council in behalf of a recommendation of a special committee of the Council that an appropriation be made for the employment of a social service secretary for the Diocese. This suggestion was favorably received, but no action was taken because of the approaching election later in the year of a Bishop Coadjutor.

In recognition of the splendid services of Dr. William H. Jefferys as Superintendent of the City Mission, the following action was taken by the Department:

"The retirement of Dr. William H. Jefferys as Superintendent of the City Mission Society on February 1, 1942, due to failing health, is a matter of deep regret to the Church at large and to the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Department of Social Relations in particular.

"As a trained physician, an experienced missionary in the foreign field, and a Christian gentleman with real social vision and spiritual insight, Dr. Jefferys has made a rich and many-sided contribution both to social work and to the Church in its ministry to the underprivileged, during his administration of the City Mission for the past 25 years.

"We greatly value the work of Dr. Jefferys, and rejoice in his splendid accomplishments. And we trust that he may be spared for many years of association with this Department, to give us the benefit of his advice and experience in relation to the general work of the Diocese in its social relationships and through its institutions.

"In his retirment from active duty we wish to assure him of our prayers for improved health, and the blessing of peace and courage all his days."

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

For a number of years this report has been written by the Rev. James F. Bullitt as Secretary of the Department. His death early last year deprived the Department of his invaluable services; we greatly miss him from the meetings and the work of the Department. His faithfulness, courtesy and dependable services have been greatly appreciated by his associates and we desire to place upon the record of this annual report a sincere expression of that appreciation and of the serious loss we, in common with many other fields of diocesan work, have suffered in his passing from us.

During the year progress has been made in developing work in the Manoa-Broomall section along the West Chester Pike in the Convocation of Chester. Ground has been purchased at Brookthorpe Hills, about midway between these two localities, and there is every promise of an important centre of work developing here. The Bishop has named it St. Peter's, Brookthorpe Hills.

Two changes have taken place in the leadership of Convocations during 1941: Dean Eder, after 8 years as Dean of the Convocation of Germantown, when, in addition to the heavy demands of a large parish, he has given generously of his time and strength in the important work of this large Convocation, has been succeeded by the Rev. N. Herbert Caley; Dean Wilcox, after serving faithfully in the Convocation of Chester, up to the time he was called into the Army as Chaplain, also serving in addition to the work of a large Parish, has been succeeded by the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner, D.D.

Following the death of Archdeacon Bullitt, the racial work, for which he was responsible, was transferred to the Convocations and its supervision given to the Deans. Three committees were appointed to assist the Deans and the Convocations in the conduct of the Polish, Italian, and Negro work, and to study the various problems connected with these fields of missionary work in the Diocese.

The missionary work in the Convocation of Germantown, formerly under the Country Centre Mission, has been rearranged by Bishop Taitt and that centre given up.

The headquarters of the Hebrew Christian work at 517 York Avenue were removed from there, the old Church of the Advent property, to the parish house of the Church of St. Jude and The Nativity, 11th and Mt. Vernon Streets.

St. Augustine's Mission, in North Philadelphia, has relinquished all support from missionary funds.

The Church of the Messiah also gave up its status as a mission, becoming an aided parish.

St. James, Langhorne, occupied a new parish house; and St. Monica's is enlarging and improving its parish house.

A special committee has been appointed, at the request of the Convocation of North Philadelphia, to survey the missionary organization of the Diocese with a view to recommending ways and means by which the work may be more effectively carried on.

STANLEY R. WEST,
Chairman.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Dean Wilcox left for active duty in the Army early in January. He appointed the Rev. George C. Anderson, his assistant, to take the work of his Parish, and the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Convocation, Dr. Charles E. Tuke, to carry on the work of the Convocation until the spring meeting. Dean Wilcox is doing a great piece of work as a Major Chaplain, but we miss him in the many places we were accustomed to find him.

The Rev. Charles H. Urban, who was in charge of Atonement, Morton, entered active service in the Army, as a Chaplain, early in the year. Our prayers go with these two men in the difficult tasks they face each day.

The Rev. Albert E. Clattenberg, D.D., was compelled to retire from active parochial work early in the Fall owing to illness. We are happy to learn that "Clatt" is much improved and will soon be ready for active duty in some field.

The founder of Redeemer, Springfield, the Rev. George R. Bishop, has retired from active administration of his Parish. Mr. Bishop has rendered valuable service to the Diocese in the founding of this work. The community, as well as the Diocese, will always be indebted to him.

Many changes in the Missions of the Convocation took place during the past year. Bishop Taitt made the following appointments. The Rev. Albert E. Wilcox relinquished his duties at St. Stephen's, Norwood, and took up the work of Holy Comforter, Aronimink. The Rev. David Holmes became rector of St. Stephen's, Norwood, January 1, 1942.

The Rev. Samuel N. Baxter, Jr., became Vicar of Redeemer, Springfield, November 15, 1941. The Rev. W. W. Williams was appointed in charge of St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, as of September 1, 1941.

Dean Wilcox inaugurated a new work at Manoa under the leadership of Mr. Dougald L. Maclean, of the Philadelphia Divinity School, which has progressed in a very satisfactory way during the past year. A new lot has been purchased by the Church

Foundation for this work at Brookthorpe Hills, a mile west of Manoa. Bishop Taitt has named the new Mission St. Peter's.

St. James, Prospect Park, received the gift of $2,000 from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation. This is a great blessing to this Mission for it makes possible a further reduction of the mortgage.

We are indeed grateful to the women of the Convocation for their annual gift. The mortgage situation in the Convocation has been greatly relieved by this annual gift in each of the last fifteen years. To obtain this gift the Mission has to match the amount with a like sum. In the fifteen years the mortgages of the Convocation have been reduced $60,000 through this plan.

I would like to express my appreciation for the cooperation and invaluable services of the Rev. Dr. Hartshorne. Whenever we need funds for some piece of work in the Convocations, Dr. Hartshorne finds it somewhere. He is indeed a true friend of all the Deans.

CHARLES W. SHREINER,
Dean.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Dear Fellow Members of the Woman's Auxiliary:

A wholehearted belief in the missionary work of the Church, especially in the Convocation of Chester, is our common bond; but with magnificent comprehension of the whole picture of our Church's domestic mission, you women with the "Far Away Look" have pledged and paid over five hundred dollars toward a station wagon for the Rev. Dudley B. McNeil's stirring work in our behalf in the Missionary District of Wyoming. That you gave of yourselves, as well as your possessions, is fully appreciated, for most of you must have made the pledge with empty treasuries and had to return to your parishes and raise the money. And you did it! That in addition to your pledge of two thousand dollars to the mortgage reduction fund! (Which same sum goes, this Spring, to St. Faith's, Brookline.)

Religious Education and Christian Social Service are a part and problem of all missionary work, and I hope each Auxiliary is planning two things; first, to have either a Mission Study Class or Educational Institute on some phase of our Mission Study topic, "Christianity and the World Order"; secondly, to respond as generously as always to Episcopal Blind Day, Monday, March 16, on Gimbel's fifth floor.

Mrs. Herbert Casey has resigned as Educational Secretary for Chester Convocation and Mrs. U. Grant Beath, 138 Rolling Road, Cynwyd (telephone, Cynwyd 1537), will temporarily fill the vacancy. Mrs. Beath is a recent President of the Woman's Aid to West Philadelphia Convocation and is assisting Mrs. Jefferys with Diocesan Educational work. We welcome her to Chester Convocation.

Christ Church, Media, and Trinity Church, Swarthmore, are to be our hostesses for the Spring Meeting, Thursday, May 28, at Swarthmore This year, with the use of automobiles so restricted, I hope you will make every effort to fill the necessary cars. Perhaps with a little previous planning some of you could pick up members of other parishes enroute. Do give it serious and timely consideration.

Faithfully yours,

ALICE ADAMS WEST,
President.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The year 1941 was marked by the resignation of the Very Rev. Charles E. Eder, D.D., as Dean. For nine years Dr. Eder gave generously of his time and ability in the service of the Convocation, and we owe much to his wise guidance. The Convocation went on record expressing its deep appreciation of the fine work he did during his tenure of office.

At the present time there are 14 missions in this Convocation; 7 in the city and 7 in Bucks County. Because the population of the Convocation is increasing rapidly, and is likely to continue to do so, there is need to be constantly on the lookout for suitable locations which may be secured for new missions. But these sites should be centrally located and widely removed one from another, for in these days of easy transportation the greatest need seems to be to have fewer and stronger parishes.

As the year came to a close one of our Missions, The Church of the Messiah, under the wise and energetic direction of the Rev. William Oscar Roome, Jr., with the aid of a group of splendid men and women, went out of the status of a Mission and took that of an aided Parish and elected Mr. Roome as Rector. They are about ready to build a rectory as soon as building restrictions are lifted. We know they have worked hard. We congratulate them on their success and we pray that God will continue to give them His blessing.

Arrangements are under way for St. John's Mission, West Oak Lane, to be combined with the Parish of St. Matthias, whose property at 19th and Wallace Streets is being sold. When that amalgamation takes place the name of the Mission will be "The Church of St. Matthias," and it is hoped that in another year or two this, too, will become a Parish. The Rev. Albert F. Fischer, Jr., and his faithful people have done some remarkably fine work in the few years since the mission came into being.

St. Gabriel's, Feltonville, and Ascension, Rhawnhurst, have continued their good work during the past year. But each has its special need. Pastor and people at St. Gabriel's are working hard gathering funds for the erection of a much needed rectory on their property adjoining the Church. Ascension, Rhawnhurst, ought to have a second story added to its present building as soon as possible, for the existing room has to be used for worship on Sunday and for all kinds of parochial activities during the week. This is unfortunate, as it does not tend to develop devotion.

For some years the missions connected with the Country Centre Mission, under the direction of the Rev. Waldo D. Parker, consisting of St. James, Langhorne; St. Paul, Edgeley; Grace, Hulmeville; Trinity, Buckingham; and Trinity, Solebury, have carried on a very useful and varied work largely among our rural communities. It has seemed wise now to change the set-up of this work. The Rev. Waldo D. Parker has been placed in charge of St. James, Langhorne, and St. Paul, Edgeley, only. The mission at Langhorne has, during the year, built a fine Parish House and with this addition to its facilities should show considerable growth in the years which lie ahead.

The Rev. Charles F. Ehly has been put in charge of Trinity, Buckingham, and Trinity, Solebury, and the work in both places is progressing satisfactorily.

The Rev. Albert W. Eastburn has been appointed Priest-in-Charge at Grace Church, Hulmeville.

At St. Philip, New Hope, a growing work is being carried on by a faithful and devoted layman, Mr. Robert C. Belleville, 3rd, under the supervision of the Dean.

St. Stephen, Wissahickon, has found it necessary to ask the Diocese to take it over as a mission of the Convocation. Perhaps in time it may be able to resume its status as a Parish.

The other two missions where work is being steadily carried on are Incarnation, Morrisville, and St. Andrew, Somerton.

The Convocation has one Mission among the Poles, that of St. Mary, Manayunk, which is under the care of the Rev. Edward M. Baczewski, and uses the buildings of St. Stephen, Wissahickon. The work is moving ahead slowly because it is handicapped by a lack of additional clerical help; for the Priest-in-Charge is also at 2 missions in the Convocation of North Philadelphia, and there is the problem of suitable hours for the service.

We are most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation, under the able leadership of Miss Lily Cheston, for the enthusiastic work they have accomplished during the past year, and for the great financial help they have given, especially for the $500 they have contributed toward the erection of a rectory at the Church of the Messiah, and another $500 toward the rectory at St. Gabriel's. We ask that all the Parishes and Missions of the Convocation send representatives to the meetings of the Woman's Aid at our Convocational gatherings.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward for so kindly giving us the use of their beautiful estate for the Annual Garden Party, so splendidly managed by the members of our Woman's Aid. These Garden Parties are most helpful, not only for the financial assistance they provide, but also for the happy social feeling they develop among the many members of the Convocation who gather there.

N. HERBERT CALEY,
Dean.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown wishes to begin its report for 1941 by recording its deep appreciation for the leadership of Mrs. George Woodward, who resigned as chairman at the close of 1940, after serving in that capacity for many years.

During 1941, four meetings were held; also, a Quiet Hour in Lent and the Annual Garden Party in June. In addition, the Educational Secretary planned and carried out an excellent missionary meeting.

The officers elected for 1942 are: Miss Lily Cheston, Chairman; Mrs. John Lear, Vice-chairman; Mrs. Irving I. Gloninger, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. W. T. Irwin, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Ralph Putnam, Treasurer; Mrs. H. A. Holland, Assistant Treasurer.

Additional members of the Executive Committee appointed for 1942 are: Mrs. George Woodward, Mrs. Lyle L. Jenne, and Mrs. John T. Custis, Educational Secretary.

The following gifts tell of the financial support given by the Woman's Aid in 1941.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

A year of genuine progress has marked the work in the Missions of this Convocation. The Vicars have rendered splendid service at their respective posts. Large groups of new people are coming into the environs of Hatboro, Lansdale, and Willow Grove, due to the greatly expanding essential war work industries. This fact places a real challenge before the Vicars and their people, who are doing their utmost to gather the newcomers into the Church life of the community.

There will be a change in the oversight of Epiphany Mission, Royersford, after the first of the year, due to the resignation of the Rector of St. Peter's, Phoenixville. Dr. Anthony very generously gave his services gratuitously to this Mission for several years past, and his departure will be a sad event for the members of Epiphany. St. Peter's Mission, Glenside, is well cared for by the Rev. George Copeland, Rector of St. Peter's, Weldon, who records all his official acts in the report of that Parish.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The past year has noted many changes. Our good friend and faithful worker, Mrs. T. Leslie Gossling, died in the fall of the year. She had always been an active worker in the Woman's Aid, and its President for several years. Failing health occasioned her resignation but she continued to be active and interested up to the very last. She is greatly missed.

Toward the end of the year the Rev. Robert C. Hubbs, Vicar of St. Ambrose Mission, resigned to take up work in the Diocese of Newark, and the Rev. Albert W. Eastburn was transferred from St. Barnabas to Grace Church, Hulmeville, in the Convocation of Germantown, after 12 years of most painstaking and productive work.

The Rev. Philip Broburg was appointed Vicar of St. George's, Venango, September 1, and has been making progress in the work there ever since. Both the Bishop's Call for the Church Extension Fund in May and a portion of the Advent Offering of the Sunday Schools in December were allotted to the rebuilding of the nave of St. George's, Venango. These two appeals have amounted to approximately $1,200 and the people themselves have solicited approximately $3,000 to date, so that funds should be on hand sufficient to warrant getting bids on the required construction in the near future. Mr. E. Edgerton Proffitt served out the year as Lay Reader at St. George's, completing three years of spendid and faithful service.

During the year St. Augustine's relinquished all support from the Diocese under the stimulating leadership of the Rev. Tollie L. Caution. St. Bartholomew's, under the continuing pastoral care of the Rev. John S. Gillespie, raised a fund to apply on its mortgage reduction; and St. Ambrose did likewise. The Diocese made substantial payments on behalf of the mortgages on St. George's, Richmond, and the Church of the Holy Redeemer (Polish). Following the death of the late lamented Archdeacon James F. Bullitt, the work amongst foreign born, including the Italian Mission of St. Mary of the Annunciation; and the two Polish Missions, the Advent and the Holy Redeemer, were placed under supervision of the Dean as a general policy throughout the Convocations of the Diocese in which such work is being done. The Rev. S. G. Biagini, and the Rev. E. M. Baczewski are responsible men in positions of much influence and significance among their own people and should be given all possible encouragement and support.

Although the work for Deaf Mutes at All Souls comes under the direction of a special Commission, the faithful Missionary, the Rev. Henry J. Pulver, has made interesting and appealing reports to the Convocation. He states that heater repairs are necessary and also that his people are not benefiting by Defense activities and he feels they need $300 additional appropriation from the Diocese.

With the revival of war conditions, the Rev. C. Herbert Reese returned to active duty as Army Chaplain and his place at St. Matthew's was filled by the election of the Rev. W. Roulston McKean, for many years Assistant at Christ Church. The Dean was appointed by the Bishop to take Mr. Reese's place as Chairman on the Commission for work among Jews. Late in the year it was found that Miss Mary Ormsby's health did not permit of more active service as Missionary, and it was decided, with the approval of the Women's Committee cooperating with the Hebrew Christian Synagogue, to close that center, the property reverting to the Mission of the Advent under the supervision of the Church Foundation. Miss Ormsby continues as a Missionary of the Diocese with her work centering at the Church of St. Jude and The Nativity, the Rev. John L. Saunders continuing to serve as Chaplain.

The retirement of the Rev. George R. Miller, after 40 years of service at St. Nathanael's, which he built from a small Mission, was given special recognition, by an appropriate resolution adopted at the fall meeting of the Convocation.

The Congregation of St. Paul's Mission, North Penn, moved into new quarters at 2249 West Cumberland Street, where their first service was held on Easter, 1941. They are awaiting the appointment of a Vicar. Likewise the work at St. Christopher's, at 1332 North 12th Street, awaits new and adequate leadership.

In January, Mrs. Joseph L. Harrison, a member of St. Matthew's, was elected President of the Woman's Aid and has given very helpful and constructive leadership throughout the year, together with her fellow officers. Toward the close of the year Miss Esther Ball, Treasurer, announced she could not be a candidate for reelection due to failing health. Her services throughout the years have been most acceptable and she has given generously of her time and interest in keeping most carefully the funds of the Woman's Aid. The report of the Treasurer of the Convocation, Mr. Henry C. Lawser, is appended herewith. His tenure of office is probably the longest in the history of the Convocation.

In view of the increasing responsibilities at the Seamen's Church Institute, and after serving two terms as Dean of the Convocation, I found it necessary to inform the Bishop that I could not be a candidate for reelection. It is my own earnest hope that my successor will have more time, as well as talent, to give to the growing work of the Convocation of North Philadelphia. It is interesting to note that whereas in 1934 there were 3,245 communicants in the Missions of the Convocation, in 1941 there were 3,432 reported. There has been a falling off in Sunday School scholars during the past 8 years, from 1,694 to 1,441. On the other hand the collections and subscriptions have risen from $22,652 to $28,558, while the amount received from the Diocese has decreased from $19,496 to $14,641.

In the Fall, the Rev. A. J. Arkin celebrated his 40th Anniversary as the Founder and Minister of St. George's, Richmond. His long and faithful Ministry has been outstanding.

It has been a great and blessed experience to attempt to serve in the capacity of Dean of the Convocation. I only regret that the service has been so limited and I feel most deeply that it has fallen far short of the opportunities and the requirements. The Convocation represents a very real Mission Field. With the oversight of its Missions, as well as the encouragement that may be given to its Parishes, it is a great responsibility, requiring conscientious effort and available time.

May the blessing of God rest upon its work and workers always.

PERCY R. STOCKMAN,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

As Dean, I wish to express my sincere thanks to all those who have so willingly cooperated with me in the prosecution of the work of the Church in the Convocation of South Philadelphia during the past year. So long as this spirit of mutual helpfulness prevails among the clergy and laity alike, further effective work will continue possible.

I am glad to think that our prediction for 1941 made twelve months ago, has not been unjustified. Good and honest work has been done, and if the results are not regarded by some people as spectacular, they show that those who made them did not succumb to the spirit of defeatism so prevalent in many other parts of the Christian world.

Owing to changing economic conditions, population will always continue to migrate. Such had happened in the past. It will happen in the future. It should be the effort of the Church of God to adapt itself as closely as possible to a changing environment, and to make the very best of altered conditions. Acknowledging the inevitability of change, both clergy and people have faced altered circumstances and tried to mold them according to the plan of God.

Our Nation's entry into the second World War has disturbed individual equilibrium. It is bound to do so even more in time to come. What the ultimate outcome of the present struggle is to be, no one but God knows.

In South Philadelphia, we have felt the effects of change by the government's erection of the new defense project known as the Passyunk Homes. In common with others in the Diocese, we feel that the Church has a definite duty imposed upon it to look after the spiritual needs of the new thousands of people who are in consequence poured into the city. At the moment of writing, a survey is being made by the members of the Diocesan War Commission to ascertain if the facilities which exist at the Memorial Church of St. Paul, 15th and Porter Streets, of which the Rev. Thomas Parker is the Rector, can be utilized to meet the new needs. Its proximity to the project, coupled with the exceptionally fine facilities which it offers for social and recreational purposes, seem to make it an ideally well equipped location for missionary extension. As the survey is not completed, it is too early to say what may be decided on.

Furthermore, the new low-cost housing project, known as the Tasker Street Project, was opened during the year. Erected to accommodate 5,000 people it is now filled to overflowing. This also constitutes a challenge which the Church cannot afford to disregard.

Our Missionaries have been zealous in the promotion of their work. The Rev. Gustav C. Meckling, who is doing a splendid piece of work at the Mission of the Transfiguration, in addition to his effort amongst the Hard of Hearing in the city, reports that the congregation of the Transfiguration has been adversely affected by removal of people who lived in his neighborhood in the government homes erected during the last war, and that 8 families were so affected. The Hard of Hearing Chapel in Holy Trinity Parish House, by the kind permission of Dr. Salmon and his vestry, has been enlarged, and desirable improvements have been made to the Altar and its furnishings. When completed, the Chapel will hold 90 persons. The average Sunday attendance is 60.

Reporting for St. Elisabeth's and L'Emmanuello, the Rev. Francis B. Roseboro says that for the first time the total sum received during the year for Collections and Subscriptions from the congregation was greater than the amount contributed by outside friends of the Church, and that he hopes to increase congregational giving in the future. His Diocesan and Missionary obligations had also been met. At St. Elisabeth's, the Parish House is the Community headquarters for the Red Cross, Civilian Defense, and a training center. As for fire-spotting, the Church Tower is regarded as being exceptionally valuable. All extra parochial activity has been curtailed to give full effect to work on the national behalf.

At the Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary, Broad Street, the Rev. Dr. Emhardt, reporting for the Rev. Thomas della Cioppa, stresses the good work done among the Italian people. He indicates that the attendance at the 8 A. M. Sunday Service is always good. The use of English is being stressed in the major services among the Italians, and the experiment, to use Dr. Emhardt's language, is "working out well."

The Rev. John R. Logan, Jr., continues to render good service at Holy Spirit Mission, maintained at 11th Street and Moyamensing Avenue, through the kind permission of the Rev. John E. Hill and his congregation. An important work is being done here among the Negro children, and it is good to report an increase in the Sunday School roll for 1941 as compared with previous years' estimate.

In conclusion, I would pay generous and unqualified tribute to the splendid work of the Woman's Aid of the South Philadelphia Convocation. They are a team of which anyone may feel proud, and I am convinced that so long as they hold together and manifest the same enthusiasm as they have shown, the work of our Church in the south city will continue to be safe in the future as it has been in the past.

FRANK BONYNGE,
Dean.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The opening meeting of the Woman's Aid was devoted to a consideration of the Missionary Problem in the United States. The leader was Mrs. F. W. Bonynge, and the discussion which followed proved both lively and thought-provoking. The topic was Shifting Populations, with special consideration of the Migrant Movement. The usual business meeting of the Convocation took place in the afternoon, when a vote of thanks was passed to the ladies of St. Luke and the Epiphany for their hospitality.

Our May meeting was chiefly concerned with arrangements for the Garden Party organized to help the Hard of Hearing Church to purchase hearing instruments, and also to assist the work of the Mission of the Transfiguration.

The Nominating Committee, with Miss Eleanor A. Deane as Chairman, and 4 members of the Convocation: Mrs. Olive Doughty, Mrs. Alfred Hand, Miss Mildred Lee, and Mrs. Robert Tabb, recommended that the present officials be asked to serve for a further term. The resolution was put to the meeting and the decision was unanimous.

Of the $881.35 raised by the Convocation during the year, naturally most of it was kept for work in South Philadelphia. The Hard of Hearing were enabled to purchase 15 hearing instruments and the Mission of the Transfiguration was given $297.16 for its work.

The children of the following churches were sent checks for Christmas Treats: Holy Spirit Mission, Transfiguration Mission, Crucifixion, St. Mary Pro-Cathedral, and St. Elisabeth.

The Elizabeth Price Martin League was generously remembered with $29, also 219 packages and 40 other Christmas gifts.

Many ladies of the Convocation acted as Hostesses and Waitresses on March 3, 1941, at the Educational Day for the Blind. They also donated to the luncheon menu gifts of chicken salad, potato salad, 47 cakes, etc., and also $72.45 in cash.

The Needlework Guild was aided with 834 garments for the needy and poor, and a gift of $38.45 in cash; this included $2.25 for the Shoe Fund.

Other worthy causes assisted included: House of Rest, $25; St. John's Settlement House, $10; Daily Vacation Bible School, $25; and the Episcopal Hospital Fete, $25.

I wish to thank the individual Delegates for the splendid cooperation which I had from them during the year. Without this fine spirit my efforts would have been futile. I feel, therefore, that the success which was achieved was entirely due to the enthusiasm of these ladies.

MRS. FRANK BONYNGE,
President.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The missionary work in the Convocation during 1941 has shown satisfactory progress, and we believe is more and more meeting the needs of the people in the several localities. It is a continuing, steady work and is growing stronger each year.

There has been no apparent need for the opening of new work, although the building of the new Bartram Village, between 54th and Spruce Streets, south of Woodland Avenue, will present to the Convocation and Diocese a new challenge and opportunity. A large number of houses is being built for Defense workers. The Convocation is alert to this new situation and will cooperate with the neighboring parishes and with the Diocesan War Commission in meeting the problem.

The Rev. Morris W. Derr was appointed by the Bishop to be Vicar in charge of the work at St. Titus' Mission. This took effect in the early fall. Mr. Derr has taken hold of the work in splendid manner and is stimulating interest in every department of the work. Organizations are being strengthened numerically and financially, and attendance at services has shown an increase. He further reports the need of some repairs and renovations which will be taken under consideration by the Convocation.

The Rev. Arthur C. Moore, the Vicar in charge of St. Cyprian's and St. Monica's, is doing a fruitful work at both Missions. The growth is not sensational in character, but it is steady and substantial. The people of St. Monica's are endeavoring to gather funds, looking forward to major improvements to the property some time in the future. A part of the Church School Advent Offering has been assigned to St. Monica's for the purpose of setting up an adequate department for the kindergarten and lower grades of the Church School. It is hoped these improvements will be made in the coming year.

The Missions of the Convocation met their missionary quotas in full and have accepted increased responsibility in meeting the vicars' salaries.

We are happy in the fact that the Convocation again, as a whole, more than met its quota. In view of the extreme situations in a number of the Parishes this achievement of the Convocation is most commendable.

The Rev. Thomas W. S. Logan has, during the year, continued a fine work at St. Michael and All Angels Chapel. This Chapel participates generously in Diocesan activities and programs and shows increasing evidence of its strength and loyalty.

It was decided to have only two meetings of the Convocation during the year instead of three, the January meeting being omitted. There does not seem to be sufficient business to necessitate more than two.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation, however, is planning to meet three times a year as in the past. The Dean wishes to express once more his gratitude to Mrs. U. Grant Beath, President of the Woman's Aid, all her officers and every member of the Woman's Aid. They are a constant source of inspiration and provide practically all the money for work done in the Mission.

The Dean wishes to thank all the clergy of the Convocation for their loyal cooperation in all matters pertaining to the Convocation activities. Counting on their continued interest we may look forward with confidence to the future and know that the Church in the Convocation of West Philadelphia will, as always, faithfully and loyally strive to meet its obligations and opportunities

GRANVILLE TAYLOR,
Dean.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The three meetings held by the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of West Philadelphia during the year 1941 were well attended and characterized by the usual spirit of loyal cooperation in carrying on the work for which the group is responsible. The Mission of St. Monica was the Convocation project for the year and the Woman's Aid was happy to contribute its share in making some very necessary repairs there and to assist in the purchase of a car for the Rev. Arthur C. Moore, faithful Vicar of both St. Cyprian's and St. Monica's. Thanks to gifts from interested churches and friends in West Philadelphia, substantial assistance from the Diocesan Committee and plate offerings, it was possible to provide both useful and joyful Christmas gifts for the Missions. West Philadelphia took its usual part in Episcopal Day of Educational Week for the Blind and in the May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital. It was a privilege to share also in the Christmas plans at the Philadelphia General Hospital. The day of the Convocation June Fete was cold and stormy outside but within the hospitable Parish House of St. Andrew's Church the atmosphere was warm and friendly. The Educational Day, March 27, led by Mrs. William H. Jefferys and Mrs. Samuel P. Felix, was most interesting and profitable.

As I come to the end of four, busy, happy years as Chairman of the Woman's Aid, I do so with a sense of deep gratitude for the privilege it has been to be so closely associated with the people of the Churches and Missions of West Philadelphia and with a sincere appreciation of the unfailing, loyal support of every member of that splendid group of faithful church women—the Woman's Aid. I wish also to thank Dean and Mrs. Taylor for their always sympathetic interest and wise counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH C. BEATH,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met regularly each month except during the summer, in 1941, and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

A sub-committee of the Department of Finance is a Committee of Financial Safeguards, report of which will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

Payments were made during the year against principal on mortgages from the Mortgage Redemption Fund:

St. Peter, Glenside	$500.00
St. Barnabas, Germantown	1,000.50
St. Elisabeth's, Philadelphia	6,461.00
Ascension, Rhawnhurst	1,000.00
Holy Redeemer (Polish)	8,801.00
St. George, Richmond	1,000.00
Zion, Philadelphia	500.00
	$19,262.50

The payments on St. Elisabeth's, Philadelphia., and Holy Redeemer (Polish) paid off the entire amount of the mortgage.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese, and its Expectation to the National Church for 1941 have been paid in full, and that a balance of $11,142.10 remained in the Missionary Account when the books were closed for the year, from which, in February, 1942, $3,500 has been appropriated as a special gift to the Diocesan Vicars.

JOSHUA ASH PIERSON,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During the period of six months that this report covers, the principal activities of the Department have been in the nature of evaluations, appraisals, and inspections of properties for possible alterations. The properties involved under the above heading were:

1. The corner of Third and Dauphin Streets (vacant ground)
2. Twenty-fourth and Cumberland Streets
3. 517 York Avenue (Hebrew Christian Synagogue)
4. Fifty-seventh and Pearl Streets (formerly St. Thomas)
5. St. Elisabeth's Parish House
6. Church of the Messiah

Various minor repairs have been made to the Church House.

The question of reorganization of the Department of Property has been under consideration since last fall. Plans in connection with this matter will be submitted at a later date.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD J. MCCARTHY,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Department continued to emphasize what it considers its primary function—the dissemination of Church news—by 40 newspaper pages of publicity in the Philadelphia secular press, an increase of approximately 33⅓% over the previous year. In connection with this, 170 photographs were used—also an increase.

The Department also arranged for 573 scheduled meetings in The Church House, posting them on the Bulletin Board, and keeping a record of them. This was 93 meetings more than in 1940.

All supplies for Church House are purchased through the Department and a complete stock record and inventory kept.

Church Extension Calls were issued in January for St. George's, Venango, and in April for Manoa Mission (now St. Peter's, Brookthorpe Hills).

The office continues to furnish information of many and various kinds to those who call upon it.

We would remind the parishes and organizations of the Diocese that a rather large and increasing file of cuts is available for their use at no cost.

The Church News, the official organ of the Diocese was published every month except July, August, and September, with a constant effort at improvement. The Department has under consideration a number of suggestions to this end, and would welcome more. At the meeting in September we adopted as our fixed policy the paying of all current bills, with a determined effort to reduce our debt to the Winston Company. By cutting down the average number of pages and also the weight of paper we have succeeded in the first objective and were well on the way to achieving the second, but a drop of about 25% in advertising in the last month or so makes it doubtful if we shall succeed this year.

This condition, plus rising costs of all kinds, would indicate the necessity of reduction in the size of the magazine or the number of pages, unless it is offset by increased subscriptions or a subsidy from the Diocese.

T. L. GOSSLING,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

This Department has adopted certain rules to guide it in making grants to men who are to study for Holy Orders, and they are printed as part of its annual report that they may be known to parish priests in the Diocese who in the future may have young men in their cures for whom financial assistance is necessary. These rules are as follows:

1. No person shall receive a grant until he is a Postulant in attendance at a seminary approved by the Bishop.
2. Any person applying to the Commission for a grant must present a letter from his Rector stating that he seems to be a promising candidate for Holy Orders, and endorsing his appeal for aid.

3. No person shall receive a grant subsequent to the first year in seminary without having been made a Candidate for Holy Orders. (This provision may be set aside by the Commission where there is an unusual circumstance, as, for instance, illness at the time of the Candidate's examination.)
4. No Candidate for Holy Orders who has failed to submit to the Bishop the reports required by Canon 3: Section III (1), shall be eligible for a grant.
5. No recipient of a grant shall receive a grant for the subsequent seminary year without making written application to the Commission prior to June first. With this letter must be a statement from the dean of the seminary approving the man as a satisfactory student and as a promising Candidate for Holy Orders.
6. Grants shall be paid semi-annually, one-half by September 15, and one-half by January 15.
7. Every applicant shall sign the following statement:

To the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

In consideration of the grant made to me by the Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry to aid in my study in preparation for Holy Orders, I hereby agree and promise that, if for any reason, I decide not to be ordained, I will refund to the Diocese within two years from such decision all of the moneys advanced to me by the Commission.

During the year 1941 your Commission made grants to eight seminary students, one of whom was attending the Episcopal Theological School, three the Philadelphia Divinity School, one the General Seminary, two Nashotah House, and one the Du Bose Memorial Training School.

A Conference on the Ministry for young men of high-school age, who had been nominated by their rectors, was held May 10 at St. Paul's Church, Overbrook.

Recalling that during the first World War a considerable number of the men who were in military service became interested in the Ministry as a vocation, your Commission has asked the chairman of the Church Army and Navy Commission, if he so approves, to request our Church Chaplains in all branches of the Service, to bring the Ministry to the attention of suitable young men within their care. A similar request has been made of the chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania in his work among the students there.

In a letter received recently from a university chaplain we quotes this sentence: "I don't think that the Ministry is getting its share of the best minds and personalities." There is much in this statement to challenge the attention of the parish clergy of the Episcopal Church, for, after all, they are the ones who best can seek out and encourage the kind of young men whom the Church's Ministry needs and desires.

WILLIAM NEWMAN PARKER,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This was a busy year for the Department with the work being broadened into new fields. There were about 1,750 visitors to the office recorded during the year, exclusive of those who came for meetings and conferences. The office had working contact with 180 of the 211 parishes and missions in the Diocese. The Field Secretary, Miss Elizabeth P. Frazier, and Office Secretary, Miss Beryl M. Newman, were kept extraordinarily busy in Room 30, which is open daily for ten months from 9 A. M. to 4.45 P. M., and from 9 to 12 on Saturdays. Volunteers carrying on the work of the Department by committee work, teaching and special jobs, numbered 125.

The Department met ten times during the year with the Rev. Charles Martin as chairman and the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther as secretary. The chairmen of commissions were:

Adult—(includes Summer and Winter Conferences) The Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield.
Church School—The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves.

Teacher Training—The Rev. Frederick W. Blatz.
Youth—Miss Dorothy Scott, to October, then the Rev. T. Norman Mason.

Chairmen of special committees were:

Vacation Church Schools—Miss Eleanor A. Deane.
Church School by Mail—The Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr. (Created in October by the Church School Commission.)
Weekday Religious Education—Miss Helen C. Washburn. (Created in November.)

The work of the Department can best be recorded under its commissions and committees.

Adult Commission—The second Winter Conference was held in the Church House and Holy Trinity Parish House and Church on five Tuesday evenings, January 21 to February 18. There were 29 courses offered in five schools. 327 persons registered from 71 parishes and a great degree of interest and enthusiasm was shown.

The third Diocesan Summer Conference was held at Ursinus College from June 22 to June 27 under the presidency of the Rev. Charles Martin, with the Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield succeeding him at this post at the conference. 119 students were registered from 54 parishes and missions. With 24 members of the faculty and staff the total number attending the conference was 143. The attendance at all services and classes was excellent and the fine spirit in evidence last year was continued.

Through the medium of the library, the School of Christian Education, the Advanced Conference of the Province of Washington (attended by 35 from this Diocese), and in cooperation with the Woman's Auxiliary further work of Adult Education has been carried on.

Commission on Church Schools—The Lenten Offering raised under the supervision of the commission amounted to $39,345.80, which was a decrease of $2,766.29 over the previous year. One parish gave $2,700 less, which accounts for most of the decrease.

An outstanding feature of the offering was the great outdoor Presentation Service on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy. There was an estimated 3,000 present. A children's choir of over 800, with professional crosses and banners led the procession. Representatives of 112 parishes went forward to place their offering (symbolically) on the plates held by the Deans.

The Advent Offering from the children of the Diocese, amounting to $1,117.06 from 48 parishes was given to St. George's, Venango, and St. Monica's, for renovation and improvement of buildings.

Through Mrs. Charles H. Landreth, the Christmas Box secretary, 18 parishes supplied 697 Christmas gifts and $100 in cash to missions in the Domestic and Foreign Fields. Through Miss Helen McHenry, Diocesan Christmas Box secretary, 2,484 gifts and $10, from 22 parishes, were distributed to 20 missions and institutions in the Diocese.

Church School by Mail—In the fall a sub-committee was formed to carry on this work, with the Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel, Jr., Chairman. Miss Dorothy E. Kohl continued to be employed on a part-time basis to direct this work, but as you will see by this report it is a full-time job. A total of 349 children have been on the rolls during the year. Of these 40 are now attending Church School, 35 have moved, and 13 are no longer interested, leaving an enrollment at present of 261. These have been connected with 20 rural parishes by sending in the names, addresses and background story to the rectors. In addition to Forward Movement and other literature, 11,020 lessons were prepared and mailed and 2,251 question sheets corrected and returned. 53 towns and districts were surveyed and 19 schools visited to find children unable to attend a Church School. 241 visits were made to the families. To finance the securing and mailing of lesson material, 132 scholarships were given. Some materials were donated and Christmas presents were sent to all the children by the scholarship donors, the Jr. W. A., the League for the Isolated, and others. The pupils themselves made a Lenten Offering of $10.50.

Teacher Training Commission—The 71st Annual Church School Institute was held October 6 at the Christian Association with the Rev. J. E. Large as the principal speaker. The exhibit and conferences were planned around the theme "The Church School in the Forward in Service Program." 264 attended the supper and many others came in for the evening program.

The School of Christian Education (formerly the Diocesan Normal School) was held in the fall with an attendance of 149. It was a seven-session school, with ten classes and an assembly period. A sectional school was held in Downingtown in the fall, with 44 enrolled.

Youth Commission—An "All Youth Service" was held on March 16 in Holy Trinity Church. It was promoted by all youth groups and over 450 attended from 70 parishes and missions. The Secretary for Youth, of the National Council, told of the United Movement of the Church's Youth. On May 3, a Convention was held at Christ Church to learn in detail of the U. M. C. Y. Each parish was asked to send a delegate. 110 persons were present from 87 parishes. Another similar conference was held in December when 125 were present. The Commission promoted other parts of the United Movement: the Whitsunday Corporate Communion, Youth Sunday, and the World Day of Prayer on Armistice Day.

Vacation Church School Committee—17 Vacation Church Schools were held with an enrollment of 945 pupils and 70 teachers and assistants. Ten schools received aid from the Department. An Institute was held in the spring for the training of leaders. A few leaders went to the Institute conducted by the Philadelphia Council of Christian Education, which was aided by a donation of $10 from the Department. Mrs. John Loman was employed again by the Department to visit and advise the Vacation Church Schools.

Weekly Religious Education Committee—This committee came into being in the fall and has spent its time becoming familiar with the weekday religious education work here and elsewhere

The committee is made up of clergy, leaders in secular education and religious education.

Forward in Service—The Department cooperated with the Forward in Service Committee in producing material for use in the School of Prayer and in planning for the family prayer emphasis in Epiphany. Preceding the Roll Call, Department members visited the majority of rectors in the Diocese to show and tell them of the services the Department has to offer. A "Pocket Directory" of the Department was printed and each visitor took a packet of materials to show what is available. This visitation met with a good response.

The Department made bookings for the films of the Society for Visual Religious Education (Mr. John E. Burleson) during a two-week period in March.

The responsibility for the supervision of College work was taken from the Department and given to a newly formed group called the "Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions."

CHARLES MARTIN,
Chairman.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Registrar

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been performed through the year, and the statistical records of the Diocese, viz.: Episcopal Acts within the Diocese, list of Clergymen canonically resident, and of all Churches, Chapels, or Mission stations of the Diocese, with a description of their location and property, appear in their proper places in this JOURNAL.

Due to the exigencies of the war situation there has been a sharp increase of requests for Certificates of Baptism from the records of non-existent Parishes for the purposes of establishing correct age and native birth, and wherever possible, these have been complied with.

There is need for an Historical Index of all Parishes within the Diocese, existent and non-existent; and of all Clergymen who have canonically served within the same; and it is the intention of the Registrar to compile such an index, as time and circumstances permit.

H. W. GERNAND,
Registrar.

APPENDIX I

Report of The Church Foundation

At the Convention of 1941 there were nominated for election to The Church Foundation two Clergymen and four Laymen, the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, D.C.L., and the Rev. Charles E. Tuke, D.D., and Messrs. E. C. Bendere, W. M. Elkins, and L. B. Runk, all for three years, and William White, Jr., for two years. But the Convention also approved of the proposal of The Church Foundation to change the By-Laws defining its membership, so that instead of the latter being made up of six Clergymen and nine Laymen it would consist of three Clergymen and twelve Laymen. At its Annual Meeting after the Convention The Church Foundation elected to membership the above-named men nominated by the Convention. Three Clergymen, the Rev. F. W. Blatz, the Rev. James M. Collins, and the Rev. D. W. Gateson, D.D., having presented their resignations for the purpose of facilitating and expediting the change in the composition of the membership which the change in the By-Laws had made possible, the resignations were regretfully accepted, with an expression of appreciation of their helpful cooperation, and there were elected in their places, three Laymen, Messrs. T. Williams Roberts, Lee Sowden, and F. L. Van Dusen. It is believed that the reconstituted membership and Board of Directors, consisting of three Clergymen and twelve Laymen of standing in the community, will be better equipped to manage the work of The Church Foundation as it has developed in recent years, and will be thought more appropriate for such business responsibilities by those considering making use of the services offered by The Church Foundation

One of the Laymen elected, Mr. F. L. Van Dusen, was later called to the Service, and therefore resigned, and in his place there was elected Mr. Sydney P. Clark, of E. W. Clark & Co., Investment Bankers.

Since the first of the year the Foundation sustained a great loss in the death of its First Vice-President and member for many years, the late Parker S. Williams, formerly President of the Provident Trust Co., of Philadelphia and, at the time of his death, its Chairman of the Board. In addition to the helpfulness of his interest, judgment and rare personal characteristics, The Church Foundation also had the advantages resulting from his connection with the Fiscal Agent, which latter we have reason to hope will continue because of his successor having long been his associate and friend. As was well said of him at his funeral, "He gave the best he had to the best he knew," and The Church Foundation profited greatly from that giving.

To fill the vacancy in the membership, the Board recently elected Mr. Louis M. Washburn, whose father, the late Louis C. Washburn, S.T.D., had long been a member. In its recent elections the Board has turned to younger men, lest its future usefulness be at some time impaired by the loss, through death or resignation, of too many members at about the same time.

The Church Foundation is fortunate in having in its membership the Rev. Franklin Joiner, D.D., President of the Standing Committee, and in two of its Vice-Presidents men who are connected with the Executive Council and other Diocesan organizations, all of which makes for mutual understanding and helpfulness in Diocesan problems.

No new trusts of importance were accepted during the year, but title has recently been taken to two Mission properties bought for the Diocese with funds furnished by it. In such cases we now use a Standard Form of Deed or Agreement of Trust, which defines the various rights, duties and obligations of the parties concerned, and which prevents the selling or encumbering of the property without the consent of the users, the Bishop, and the Standing Committee; and if the congregations using such properties dwindle to less than twenty-five qualified voters in the organization the Diocesan Authorities may take control, and, if they think it wise, may dispose of the property and use the proceeds for work of the Church elsewhere in the Diocese. This will prevent in the future conditions under which a mere handful of people come to have sole control of valuable properties which are no longer being usefully employed for the work of the Church. In the past there has been no uniformity in the instruments vesting properties in The Church Foundation, and, sometimes, no trust provisions whatever, which is apt to result in needless delays, legal complications and expense when sales are attempted, all of which it is believed will be obviated by the use of the Standard Form, which was prepared by The Church Foundation after consultation with the Diocesan Authorities and the Chancellor.

During the year the Fiscal Agent, the Provident Trust Co., very kindly furnished The Church Foundation with a very satisfactory office on the Eighth Floor of the Provident Trust Building, 17th and Chestnut Streets, which has greatly facilitated the work of the Executive Vice-President, and is large enough for Committee Meetings, and convenient for conferences with visitors and inquirers, who are always welcome.

Some idea of the importance of the work of The Church Foundation may be gotten from the statement that its distributions to its beneficiaries are now at the rate of more than $1,200 a week. But the distributions are made quarterly, and with each is sent a photostat of the Ledger entries for the quarter. Once a year each beneficiary is sent a list of securities and uninvested principal cash in its fund or funds. A copy of all the holdings of The Church Foundation in its more than one hundred separate funds, as of the end of the previous year, is filed with the Bishop, the Secretary of the Diocese and in the Executive Office.

Possibly because of thus keeping the beneficiaries fully informed as to what is going on, there has not been for a year a single complaint of criticism received from any beneficiary. But inquiries, especially by visits, are always welcome, as they afford opportunities to show just how things are handled and how investments are made. Changes in investments appear in the quarterly photostats of Ledger entries.

In almost all funds there has been a gradual and steady falling off in income as higher rate bonds and mortgages are paid off, and the funds reinvested at lower rates of interest. While we are endeavoring, during the present improved real estate market, to reduce our holdings of houses and small stores, we still hold an undesirable total of real estate, the result of original investments some years ago in first mortgages, which were then universally considered not only safe but returning the largest amount of interest with safety.

Real Estate is always extremely uncertain and unsatisfactory as an investment for Trust Funds, and so is almost never deliberately bought for that purpose. One reason for its unsuitableness are the extreme variations likely to take place in the returns from rented properties. In a year in which no vacancies occur, or little or no repairing is done, the return may be considerably higher than from other forms of investment; but, sooner or later, the inevitable happens, the roof or the heater gives out, or both, or there has been a general refurbishing, whether or not vacancies occur, with the result, in many cases, of no return at all from the property or properties for that year, or more. This is often very upsetting to the budgets of Church and Charitable organizations.

Where The Church Foundation has considerable real estate holdings in funds of some size, we have arranged to absorb such variations in income by telling such beneficiaries at the beginning of the year what income they may expect, which is always less than the total they could receive at best, and thus a surplus is built up in the account to overcome a deficit in some following year. This does away with unpleasant surprises, and seems to be appreciated by such beneficiaries; for what they most need to know, in making up their budgets, is the amount of income from us that they can reasonably count on receiving.

But this plan by no means removes the undesirability of real estate among trust investments. For every building, without exception, is a steadily depreciating asset, partly because of physical depreciation, but even more, and more rapidly, in many cases, through obsolescence. Yet few Trustees feel legally justified in making any charge against income to offset either of the above depreciating factors, which is completely contrary to the legal requirements in the case of all corporations for profit holding properties of any kind. This is an anomally in the Law, and is due to the fact that real estate investments are not supposed to be found in trusts; but, so long as it continues it means that trust funds holding real estate will tend to run down in value and income producing power. Whenever such holdings are sold there is almost invariably an immediate, and often, drastic reduction in Book Value, that is, a large and irreparable loss of part of the original investment. Equality of treatment of present and future beneficiaries would mean retaining part of present income to be added to principal to offset the inevitable loss of principal and income for future beneficiaries. Fortunately, in The Church Foundation the holdings of real estate and of real estate participations (none of the latter were bought by us) constitute less than 18% of the investments.

There is subjoined hereto a summary of the funds and properties held in trust by The Church Foundation. The values are Book Values, that is, the original cost of the securities, or the values at which we took them over when given to us, and, in the case of real estate, such values would be those of the original mortgages plus the cost of foreclosing the mortgages and the additional investment in reconditioning the properties for renting. Any attempt to give market values for real estate and mortgages would just be indulging in guessing. It should be realized that properties held for the Diocese, being chiefly the Church House, are not income-producing investments; but, where the money to buy them passed through us, we must put them down at cost. In the matter of the large number of properties which we hold for Parishes and Missions, and in the purchasing or building of which we had no part, we can only put them down at $1.00, as we have no means of ascertaining their cost and their present value in money is entirely conjectural. But it is probably well over a million dollars, which means that we hold nearly, if not actually, at least three million dollars of securities and properties.

Executive Vice-President.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

Sunday Services have been maintained through the year, as well as on special occasions which have come to be known as Diocesan Days. No material addition has been made to the Cathedral buildings, nor is it likely that any such operations can be carried on during the war.

The Chapter records the death of two faithful members during the year, the Rev. George H. Toop, D.D., who was always present at meetings, offering sound counsel and suggestions, and Mr. William E. Scull, Registrar, who might well be called the Founder of the present Cathedral Chapter.

While nothing sepcific can be reported of activities beyond the usual at the Cathedral, much time has been given to working out plans for a future building course, and for the freeing of the site from all indebtedness. It is hoped that this latter will be an accomplished fact before the next Convention.

The Chapter cordially invites Congregations to make Pilgrimages to the Cathedral on Sunday afternoons, with the Rector and Choir conducting the Service. Likewise we would remind those responsible for the Institutions of the Diocese, that extensive acreage exists alongside the Cathedral for the future placing of such Church Institutions to comprise a Diocesan Center.

Diocesan Day will be observed at the Cathedral on Saturday, June 20. Congregations and Church Schools are invited to picnic for the day or any part of it on the Cathedral grounds.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Registrar.

Report of Committee on Financial Safeguards

Report for the Year, April, 1941–April, 1942

The Report for last year will be found on pages 345ff. of the JOURNAL of 1941.

In the year now reported on the Committee has considered how to bring about further improvement in the financial methods and practices of parishes, mssions, institutions and Diocesan agencies with the least inconvenience to treasurers, wardens, and clergy, and how to assist wardens and treasurers in their tasks. Some of the controlling facts are as follows:

1. Clergy and vestry are jointly responsible for preparing and sending in the Annual Parochial Report. Therefore neither one is singly responsible and in practice no one is responsible unless he volunteers to be so.

2. Wardens and treasurers are volunteers.

3. The work of a warden or a treasurer requires not a little time. It presupposes some facility in accounting; and some knowledge of the Diocesan requirements.

4. It is not always easy for the clergyman or for the chairman of a board or committee, to find a competent man to handle the finances.

5. Wardens and treasurers change. The new men are not necessarily informed of Diocesan requirements.

6. The Diocese is interested in sound financial methods and practices for certain obvious reasons:

(a) the reputation of the Diocese

(b) parochial and mission spending is the chief influence determining the amount of the apportionment which the national church asks the Diocese to pay (see Jnl. G. C. 1940, pp. 144, 153).

(c) Bad financial methods may affect parochial and mission contributions to the Diocese.

7. With all this in mind this Committee said, in its report of last year (Jnl., 1941, p. 348):

> "A further relief to accounting wardens, and one which would also be of assistance to the Diocese, would be the employment of a competent accountant-bookkeeper to circulate among the parishes and missions, visiting each at a time convenient to the accounting warden or treasurer, to aid or advise in the following matters:
> 'Posting' books.
> Preparing annual reports to congregations or vestries.
> Preparing Parochial Reports to the Diocese.
> Advising on bookkeeping."

At the request of the Committee a special committee of six was appointed to consider this suggestion (Jnl. 1941, p. 49). Consultation with the special committee has convinced the Committee on Safeguards that the idea of a circulating accountant-bookkeeper is not practical. One man could not perform all the accounting services required of him because the period when these would be needed would be short and the demand intensive. It will be better to rely on professional accountants selected by the parishes, missions, and institutions to be audited, and, in the case of Diocesan agencies, by the Diocese, and have these accountants gradually bring about better methods by means of reports and recommendations to the Executive Council made through the Department of Finance. In cases where the employment of accountants would be too onerous financially, the Council should be empowered to pay part or all of the expense.

To summarize: The inexpensive and effectual way to improve financial methods and practices by administrative supervision is to require every parish, mission, institution, and Diocesan agency to employ a thoroughly qualified accountant, let him point out the weak spots, and have these reviewed by the Department of Finance and the Council.

This takes us to the next step; bringing about the adoption of the recommendation. We need a competent financial man to check the accountants' recommendations; place them before the Department of Finance, and the Council, with his own views; and then confer with the wardens or treasurers concerned, communicating to them the decision of the Council and offering his aid for carrying it out. Now it so happens that we need such a man also for enough other tasks to make full use of his time. We need him to supervise the Diocesan accounting, instruct the bookkeepers, see the clergy, wardens, and treasurers who come to Church House, act as executive to the Departments of Property and of Finance, and be in general a Diocesan financial executive or controller. The appointment to such a post of a qualified and sympathetic man would tend toward accomplishment of the program of the Committee on Safeguards in addition to fulfilling the other needs just mentioned.

Our present Canon XVI, "Of Business Methods in Church Affairs," represents General Convention legislation as it stood prior to October, 1940, and some ideas of the Committee on Safeguards developed between 1934 and 1940. A rewriting in 1940 of the General Convention Canon, and experience gained in promoting the adoption of financial safeguards in this Diocese, make a revision of our Diocesan Canon highly desirable.

The new General Convention Canon (No. 53) begins by declaring the agencies to which the canon applies, and then, in successive sections, lays down rules as to custody, bonding, accounting, auditing, reporting, and insuring. Finally, it instructs the Dioceses to enact appropriate canons to execute these rules and to entrust their execution to a Diocesan Department or Committee of Finance.

The proposed new Diocesan Canon follows suit by stipulating the same safeguards and entrusting their enforcement to the Department of Finance and Executive Council. It provides that any parish or institution dissatisfied with the requirements of the Executive Council under the Canon may appeal to a board of three to be named by the Bishop. And it allows the Council to assume the expense of making audits when satisfied that assistance is thus needed. The effective date of the Canon is postponed to January 1, 1943, to allow for conformation with the minimum of inconvenience. The proposed new Canon and a Resolution for its adoption, are printed in the current Report of the Committee on Canons.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES A. NIBLO,
JOHN CRAIG ROAK,
P. BLAIR LEE,
FRANCIS A. LEWIS,
SPENCER ERVIN,
Chairman.

APPENDIX M

Report of the Joint Commission on Evangelism and The Forward Movement

During the year the Joint Commission continued to supervise the execution of the Presiding Bishop's plan of Forward in Service in this Diocese. The Commission acted as a clearing house, in most activities enlisting the aid of some appropriate Diocesan agency to carry out the suggestions of the National Commission. Among the agencies with whom the agency cooperated in this way were the Department of Religious Education, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Field Department, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Retreat Association, the Church Club, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the War Commission, and various Convocations. Most of the activities in which Forward in Service had a share will be reported by these various agencies.

Among the activities purely concerned with the promotional side of Forward in Service may be mentioned conferences for the Clergy and Laity, a number of articles in The Church News, a printed calendar for the year, a campaign for Family Worship during Epiphany, and a very successful School of Prayer in Advent, with which approximately ninety Parishes and Missions cooperating.

JOHN K. SHRYOCK,
Chairman.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions for the Year 1941

The Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions endeavored to carry on to the utmost of its ability the duties consigned to it by this Convention. Every Parish asking for a grant to insure the Rector receiving the minimum salary as set forth by Canon has received full consideration and no Parish was refused. The Commission made careful study of the finances of the Parishes and personal interviews were held in order to explore every avenue of resources and needs. I cannot speak too highly of the faithfulness shown by the members of this Commission in attendance at all meetings and readiness to serve in every conceivable way to carry on the duties assigned them by the Convention.

There are innumerable problems faced in Parishes needing grants that reach far beyond the financial requirement. We have felt that it was a part of our duties to enter into these when requested to do so by Rector and Vestry. This has required numerous conferences, and we have always found Rectors and Vestries most cooperative in all suggestions of helpfulness.

One of the plans set forth in years past has been brought to pass in the bringing together under one Rector, two small, adjacent and aided Parishes. Four Parishes this past year required a smaller grant than formerly. One Parish again became entirely self-sustaining. There have been several additional Parishes added to our list and four had to have an increase in the amount of the grant.

During this present year the Department of Missions asked the Executive Council to give to the Vicars a grant of money that makes for a stipend above the minimum salary set forth by Canon. This was made necessary by the increase in living costs. Your Commission feels that there is a definite need in this same direction for some of the Rectors of Aided Parishes. Therefore we submit a resolution that will make possible such a grant.

Again in 1941, all Parishes paid the Pension Assessments necessary to keep the Diocese in a solvent position as required by the Church Pension Fund. Also the Assessments on the Parishes for the work of this Commission have been better met in 1941 than for many previous years.

The Commission recommends the adoption of the following Resolutions:

1. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions, during the year 1942 and 1943, may, at its discretion, and in view of particular cases, and within the limits of the funds at its disposal, make approprations to Parishes to enable them to pay salaries greater than the minimum hitherto fixed by Convention, if and when the Executive Council on recommendation of the Department of Missions shall have done so in the cases of Vicars of Missions, but not to a greater extent.

2. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess for the work of this Commission for the year 1943 a sum not to exceed $16,000.

J. M. NIBLO,
Chairman

APPENDIX O

Report of Committee on Seal of the Diocese

Diocesan Convention of 1941 adopted a resolution for the appointment of a Committee to consider the Seal of the Diocese, and report in 1942. The Reverend Messrs. Niblo, Groton, and Joiner, and Messrs. Spencer Ervin and F. A. Pocock, originator and mover of the Resolution, were appointed as the Committee.

The purpose of the mover of the Resolution was to correct alleged heraldic errors in the Shield adopted by the Diocese in 1906 (Jnl., 1941, pp. 37, 52, 362).

The Committee so appointed has met not a few times since May, 1941. It now submits a preliminary Report, the statements and proposals in which it asks this Convention and the Diocese at large to consider carefully and to criticize. The Committee also asks that it be continued, to report further to Convention of 1943.

The Committee will divide its report into the following heads:

A. Explanation of Terms
B. Errors in the present Seal
C. Proposals for a new Seal

A. Explanation of Terms:

A Coat of Arms consists of a shield and a crest. When it is desired to use a Coat of Arms on a seal, it is customary to surround it with a legend designating the locality. A seal, therefore, consists of crest, coat of arms, and legend.

The crest was hereditary, and unalterable. The coat of arms was personal and bore the devices of a particular knight. Each knight chose his own, by which he might be recognized in spite of the armor which concealed him. The seal was of course equally practical; it authenticated documents. In this Report we are discussing a design for a seal, though for convenience we speak of it as a seal. If a seal were to be engraved from the design, impressions from the copper or steel would lack the colors of the design, but these would be designated in the usual way.

The College of Arms suggests "that a shield shall be a faithful chronicler of the history both of royal dynasties and of private families." This applies equally to the shield of a Diocese. Our shield, and our seal, should show the history of the Church and of the Diocese. In the consecration of Bishop White, a new, free country obtained the apostolic succession from English bishops.

B. Errors in the present Seal:

The present Seal is absolutely local, excepting for the Red St. George's Cross which is the symbol of England, universally flown on all public buildings in England and Wales. And the St. George's Cross shown does not meet heraldic requirements. The true St. George's Cross has four equal arms and none of them is pointed. The St. George's Cross shown on the present Seal of the Diocese makes the upper and lower arms different each from the other in length and each different from the two side arms.

The correct shield of William Penn is a silver shield with a black fess and three silver discs. The present Diocesan Shield shows it as a black bordure with eight discs. The Seal of the Diocese of Pittsburgh shows Penn's seal correctly.

The present Seal shows three golden crowns for the arms of Sweden. They are shown on the vertical arms of the Cross. But the crowns shown do not resemble those of the Swedish Coat of Arms in shape, nor, as in the Swedish Coat of Arms, are they blazoned on a blue field. And the crowns in the Swedish Coat of Arms are never blazoned vertically.

Finally, there is no reason for showing the Swedish crown at all for the Swedish churches were not absorbed into the Diocese until 1845, or sixty years after its foundation.

It is difficult to make out what is shown on the present Seal of the Diocese above William Penn's shield. Apparently a key and the top of a crosier are shown. If the other symbol is meant for a mitre it is not a mitre such as is shown as the crest of Anglican Bishops generally, for instance in the Seal of the Diocese of New York. The staff and key seem to be purely American inventions. If the intention is to allude to the investiture of the bishop with the symbols of his office then the wrong symbols are used. Investiture was always symbolized by the delivery of the crosier and an episcopal ring, not by crosier and key.

C. The Proposed New Seal:

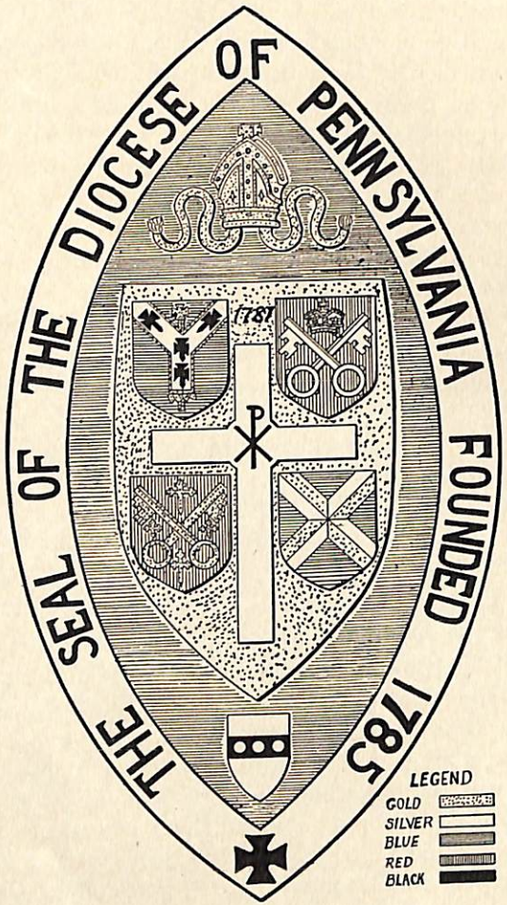
Let us consider the crest, shield, and legend separately.



The crest is the mitre used universally by Bishops and Dioceses of the Anglican Communion.

The proposed shield includes the following:

1st The Golden Shield of the Kingdom of Jerusalem
2nd The Silver Cross of that Shield
3rd The Labarum Blazoned on the Silver Cross
4th The Shield of Canterbury
5th The Shield of York
6th The Shield of Peterborough
7th The Shield of Bath and Wells
8th The Shield of William Penn for Pennsylvania, 1682

1. The Golden Shield of the Kingdom of Jerusalem, bearing blazoned upon it the cross and the shields of the four consecrating bishops, is used here to record the fact that the Kingdom of our Lord proceded from out of Jerusalem. The shield as shown is the one used by the Crusaders. It antedates heraldry, whose rules it defies by showing a silver cross on a gold shield contrary to the heraldic rule that metal may not be shown on metal.

2. The silver cross of the shield needs no comment.

3. The labarum also needs no comment. It is simply the technical heraldic name of the first two letters of the name of Christ in Greek, and one of the three figures allowed to be blazoned on the cross.

4. The shield of Canterbury holds the place of honor, the upper left-hand corner, both because Canterbury was the Consecrator of Bishop White, the first American Bishop consecrated by the Church in England, and because the Archbishop of Canterbury is the Primate of all England.

5. The shield of York occupies the second place of honor, the upper right-hand corner, both because the Bishop of York was the Presenter, and because he ranks next to Canterbury.

6 and 7. The Shield of Peterborough is shown because the Bishop of Peterborough was a witness at the Consecration, and the Shield of Bath and Wells for a corresponding reason, with the additional fact that Bath and Wells is the successor to the Bishop of Caerleon, who with the Bishop of York, represented the British Church at the Council of Arles in 314 A. D.

8. The Shield of William Penn. Penn's shield is shown in a subordinate position so as not to give it undue prominence, and yet to indicate the facts that the Diocese originally included the whole state, and that William Penn had an estate within the present state boundaries. There is no reason for giving Penn's shield a major position. Penn died in 1718, long before the foundation of the Diocese in 1785, and he was a member of the Society of Friends, not a churchman.

We may now consider the legend. It reads: "The Seal of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Founded 1785." The Diocese was organized—if a Diocese can be so organized—before there was a Bishop of Pennsylvania, the first Bishop, Bishop White, not having been consecrated until 1787, although he was elected in 1786.

The Committee submits the foregoing for criticism and comment and asks that it be continued and instructed to report further to Convention of 1943. The Committee requests that those who may wish to communicate with the Committee before May, 1943, address their communications to the Chairman, the Rev. James M. Niblo, D.D., 202 South 19th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Committee submits the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Report of the Committee on Seal of the Diocese be received and that the Committee be continued with instructions to report further at Convention of 1943.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO,
N. B. GROTON,
FRANKLIN JOINER,
SPENCER ERVIN,
FRANCIS A. POCOCK.

Old Palace, Canterbury
13th March, 1942

My dear Bishop:

I have received your letter of January 30th about the Coat of Arms for the Diocese of Pennsylvania together with the copies of the present and of the proposed Coats of Arms, which I return.

It is not for me to express any opinion on the purely heraldic aspects of this question. Doubtless your own College of Heralds will have something to say on the matter. But, so far as my consent to the incorporation of the arms of the See of Canterbury is concerned, I very willingly give that consent and I like to think that in this way the close association between the Church of England and the Episcopal Church in the United States may be symbolised.

I was interested to hear that the mover of the Resolution about this new Coat of Arms is the brother of the late Captain Roger Pocock, one of the most esteemed brethren of the old Charter-house in London.

Yours very sincerely,

Francis M. Taitt, D.D.,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Bishopthorpe, York
March 10, 1942

My dear Lord Bishop:

The Archbishop of York asks me to thank you very much for your letter and to say that he is perfectly willing that you should make use of his shield in the new one you propose for your Diocese.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) DOROTHY HOWELL-THOMAS,
Secretary.

The Palace, Wells, Somerset

From
The Bishop of Bath and Wells.

My dear Bishop:

By all means use the arms of the Bishopric of Bath and Wells on the Seal of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. No doubt you have obtained a proper, though probably complicated, description of them from the College of Arms. I am very glad to think that our Dioceses should be connected in this way. I enclose an impression of my Vicars General Seal, which incorporates the correct arms, with the correct description.

Yours very sincerely,

The Palace, Peterborough
10th March, 1942

My dear Bishop:

Your letter of January 30th with its enclosures has just reached me, and at once I write to tell you that, on behalf of the Diocese of Peterborough, which, through its Bishop in 1787, was connected with the Consecration of the first Bishop of New York, I shall be happy to consent to the shield of our Diocese appearing on your proposed Coat of Arms.

I little thought, when last week I was reading the account of the Consecration of Bishop Seabury and Bishop Provoost in the little book which Canon Campbell has recently written about the relations between the Church of England and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, that I was going to be myself recalled to the memory of it by such a letter as yours, and it is with the most profound satisfaction that I welcome the connection between our Diocese and your home Church.

I hope that nothing will occur to prevent the grant of a Coat of Arms in the form which you desire.

Yours very sincerely,

The Rt. Rev. The Lord Bishop of Pennsylvania.

The Palace, Peterborough
10th March, 1942

My dear Bishop:

I wrote to you today giving you my consent to the insertion of the arms of the Diocese of Peterborough in the proposed Coat of Arms for the Diocese of Pennsylvania, but I did so in words which you must have thought were absolutely crazy. What I had not observed, or rather had completely forgotten, was that Bishop White of Pennsylvania and Bishop Provoost were consecrated at the same time by the same Bishops, and consequently I had assumed that you were only asking for our Coat of Arms because Bishop Hinchcliffe had been indirectly the cause of so many Consecrations in the United States. Now, having re-read the story of the establishment of the Episcopate in America, I realise the very direct influence which my See has had upon yours through the laying on of hands of Bishop Hinchcliffe, and, while I apologise for my stupid and foolish mistake, I rejoice to think that there is so sound a reason for your having asked that the old connection between my Diocese and yours shall be forever strengthened.

Yours very sincerely,

The Rt. Rev. The Lord Bishop of Pennsylvania.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Committee on the Relation of the Convention to the Diocese

Your Committee has been functioning for nearly four years, having been appointed under resolution adopted by the 1938 Convention, and having made reports to the Conventions of 1939, 1940, and 1941, all its reports being received without any dissent, and the Committee's recommendations in those reports being approved. Under the authority that it asked, the Committee has made extensive investigations and has made the information that it obtained available to the Convention. It has moved slowly, as befitted a matter that was both novel and involved an amendment to the Constitution. Its investigation showed a system of proportionate representation in force in about two fifths of the Dioceses of the Church, and recommended that we qualify ourselves to adopt such a system here, if we later saw fit to do it. The principle underlying all our reports was that no existing representation in the Convention of any parish would be decreased, but that certain large parishes might be permitted to have one, or at the utmost two, additional Deputies:

The Committee's recommendation for amendment of the Constitution makes no immediate change, but, as stated in the report of 1940, merely clears the way for a future proportionate representation, if, as and when a future Convention adopts a canon, stating also that "if and when such canon is adopted, the basis upon which any increased representation should be apportioned can be then finally determined." The Constitutional amendment recommended was approved by the Convention of 1941 and the Committee accordingly recommends its final approval this year.

The Amendment will be found in the Report of the Committee on Canons to this Convention.

If this action is accordingly finally taken, so that the Constitution stands thus amended, your Committee asks that the matter be referred back to it to report next year a canon involving a suggested basis for such proportionate representation, and at that time, the Convention, being fully empowered to adopt a canon, can debate the merits of any proposed plan and adopt it in any modified form it sees fit, or reject it in toto.

APPENDIX R

Report of the Commission on Music

The Commission on Music met immediately following the last Diocesan Convention and organized by electing the Rev. N. Herbert Caley as Chairman, Mr. H. William Hawke as Secretary, and Mr. Robert H. Cato as Treasurer. Mr. Cato has since resigned and left the Diocese and Mr. Hawke took over the duties of the Treasurer.

Last June the Chairman and the Secretary took charge of the music at the Diocesan Summer Conference at Ursinus College. This included a course in "Music at the Morning Service," a series of various musical events in the afternoon, and the supervision of the singing of hymns at the twilight services.

In October and November a course for choir masters and organists covering eight weeks was held in St. Mark's Parish House. This, as usual, was very well attended. Subjects included Voice Production, Choir Training, Anglican Chanting, Hymnology, and the Relation Between Rector and Choir Master. Each evening closed with a demonstration of their work by one of eight different choirs.

Three courses were given at the winter conference of the School of Christian Education during January and February.

Articles were contributed to each issue of The Church News, as well as suugested lists of hymns and anthems for each season of the Church Year.

Additions have been made to the Lending Library of Choir Music.

It is gratifying for the Commission to be able to report that we still are constantly receiving correspondence and requests for advice and suggestions as to musical matters, as well as for literature we distributed at Kansas City as a result of the booth and exhibit we had at the last General Convention.

Plans are under way to enlarge the scope of our work and the usefulness of the Commission.

In conclusion, the Commission presents the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Music be continued with power to fill vacancies and to add to its numbers.

N. HERBERT CALEY,
Chairman.

APPENDIX S

Report of the Committee on Clergy Placement

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

Your Committee on Clergy Placement repeats what it said a year ago, that it is of the opinion that while it might be desirable to create by Canon a Diocesan Committee on Clergy Placement, that there should be no mandatory provisions in conflict with the inherent rights of the Parishes and their corporate powers under their charters, but that the duties of the Committee should be limited to ascertaining facts in regard to clergymen and making suggestions to Vestries requesting them.

As was stated in the last report your Committee is awaiting the report of the Special Committee of the General Convention upon this important subject to be presented at the next General Convention. It will therefore be unable to make a complete report until the Diocesan Convention of 1944. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Report of the Committee on Clergy Placement be received and the Committee continued.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN EDWIN HILL
Chairman.

APPENDIX T

Report of Committee on Church Debt

This Committee was appointed by the Diocesan Convention of 1940, after the presentation of the Report of a Special Committee on Church Debt made to the 16th Synod of the Province of Washington (Jnl. of 1940, pp. 361–363 and 37 ff). The Committee reported to Convention, 1941, and by Resolution was continued for further study and report (Jnl., 1941, p. 374 following and 51).

As suggested in the Report to the Convention of 1941, the Committee felt that its consideration should be given wholly to the problem of non-mortgage debt, since the subject of mortgage debt had already been dealt with adequately by both Diocesan and General Church Canons (Diocesan Canon XII, General Church Canon 59). Certain figures were presented showing the aggregate mortgage and non-mortgage debt of the Diocese to be approximately $950,000 as of April 1, 1941: there is reason to believe it has been still further reduced since that time, although no figures have been consulted.

The Committee feel that there is nothing to be done about the existing situation, except to recommend that every possible measure be taken to liquidate existing indebtedness. We did feel, however, that the Diocese might well consider the advisability of adopting certain regulatory measures controlling the creation of non-mortgage indebtedness in the future, especially in view of the fact that in the last resort Church property might be levied against to secure payment of the debt, and the Diocese might be obliged to assume responsibility for the final liquidation of indebtedness. Besides, it is obvious that a congregation facing the problem of paying off a huge debt would not be in a favorable position to undertake its full measure of support for the work of the Church.

The Committee, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of a Canon, "On Regulating the Incurring of Indebtedness Not Secured on Real Property," which is presented as part of the Report of the Committee on Canons. In recommending this Canon, we desire to explain the general principles underlying its construction.

In the first place, it seemed to us a wise principle to be followed that the amount of indebtedness which any congregation might incur should be based upon the ability of that congregation to pay it back. In other words, the index of the size of possible debt is the normal "giving strength" of a congregation. This is a principle which is valid in business, or in other private ventures, where it becomes necessary to augment resources by means of debt. We believe that the ability of a congregation to liquidate its indebtedness may be shown by taking the average annual income over a period of a few years immediately prior to the incurring of new indebtedness. It should be noted further, that the "giving strength" of a congregation is affected by the amount of debt already in existence. This means that any calculation arriving at an index of the amount which can be borrowed safely would include an adjustment between average annual income and indebtedness for which a congregation is already liable.

The second principle follows inevitably from the first, viz., that the question of whether or not a congregation should incur debt ought to be provisional upon a definite plan of amortization. The Diocese cannot insist upon this in every instance, but it can require it in those cases where consent to incur debt is applied for. We have deemed it wise to establish the point that where the Diocese grants consent to incur debt, such consent shall be given only upon the condition that a workable plan of amortization is presented.

The third principle by which we have been guided is that it would be unsound and detrimental to the effectiveness of the work of any congregation to lay down a blanket regulation, requiring consent in every single instance where indebtedness is to be incurred. This would work a hardship upon congregations which are perfectly able to undertake indebtedness without exposing themselves to undue risk. It would also multiply the work of Diocesan departments beyond reasonable limits, and in the end would become more a nuisance than a wise regulation.

The Committee have followed the suggestion of the Provincial Committee on Church Debt (although we have completely rewritten their Canon, see JOURNAL of 1941, p. 376) in considering the question of non-mortgage indebtedness under two headings, according to the purpose for which the debt is to be incurred. A congregation may wish to borrow money for (a) permanent improvements to real property or equipment, or (b) to meet current expenses. These are legitimate purposes for which debt may be incurred, and the only question is, how should the indebtedness be regulated?

In the case of (a), debt for permanent improvements, it seems likely that an amount not in excess of 150% of the average annual receipts during the three fiscal years immediately preceding the incurring of the new indebtedness minus indebtedness of every kind already existing, would be within the reasonable ability of any congregation to assume without undue risk. For example, suppose a congregation wished to borrow money to pay for certain improvements. It would first of all calculate the average annual receipts for the three fiscal years immediately preceding. These receipts turn out to be $5,000 a year. There is already, however, a debt of $1,000 for improvements made previously, and, in addition, a debt of $500 for current expenses. This means that the figure on which the calculation is to be made would be $3,500. In other words, the borrowing capacity of that congregation would be presented by 150% of $3,500, or $5,250. It could borrow up to this last figure on a note or other agreement without first obtaining the consent of appropriate Diocesan authority. Beyond that figure, the Committee feel it would be most unwise for such a congregation to proceed, at least without the consent of a Diocesan authority properly qualified to give it.

In the case of (b), debt for current expenses, a different situation obtains. There are obvious reasons why it becomes necessary from time to time to borrow money to meet current expenses: to mention the most obvious of all, in many parishes income drops off during the summer months, at a time when ordinary expenses must none the less be met. Let us suppose that the same congregation of which we have just been speaking desire to augment their resources to meet current expenses. Their total income for the fiscal year immediately preceding is $5,000; but they already have a debt of $500 for current expenses. We feel that such a congregation could afford to borrow up to 20% of the income minus existing indebtedness for current expenses. In the example we are citing, that would be 20% of $4,500, or $900. A congregation with a total indebtedness for current expenses amounting to $1,400 would be exposing itself to great risk if it undertook to borrow more for the same purpose; and the Committee feel it is proper in such a case that consent should be obtained.

It seems obvious that the consenting authority should be the Executive Council, acting through its Department of Finance. The Council is the executive agency of the Convention, elected by it and responsible to it. The Department of Finance deals with all financial matters of concern to the Convention, and is competent to recommend to the Council the granting of consent to incur indebtedness in any case where it might be applied for.

The Committee would submit to the members of the Convention their opinion that the Canon proposed is very much needed, and that it would provide the necessary regulations governing the incurring of debt beyond wise and reasonable limits. We feel that it comes, in the last analysis, to a question of the proper function of a parish or mission in the community in which it is established. That parish or mission cannot operate effectively as a unit of the Church if it is hampered by a great burden of indebtedness. It is in the interest of preventing such situations from occurring in the future that we recommend the adoption of the Canon.

The Committee desire to record their thanks to the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne, D.C.L., Chairman of the Committee on Canons, for invaluable aid in redrafting their proposals.

In conclusion, the Committee offer the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the report of the Committee on Church Debt be received, and that the Committee be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. BLATZ,
STANLEY R. WEST,
N. B. GROTON,
M. J. CREAN,

APPENDIX U

Report for the Committee on Church Work Among Jews

Due to the absence from the Diocese on account of his duties as Chaplain in the U. S. Army, the Rev. C. Herbert Reese was replaced during the year as Chairman of the Commission on Church Work Among Jews by the appointment of the Rev. Percy R. Stockman, who was then Dean of the Convocation of North Philadelphia.

The Commission has held two meetings during the year, one of which was attended by the Women's Committee. As a result of its recommendations the Executive Council approved closing the Hebrew Christian Synagogue at 517 York Avenue and transferring the work to the Church of St. Jude and The Nativity, with the cooperation of the Rector, the Rev. J. L. Saunders, and the Vestry. Miss Mary Ormsby has been retained as the worker among the Jews and her salary recommended for the Budget of 1942 and as long as the work may continue.

The Women's Committee are prepared to help Miss Ormsby with incidental items of expense should she find increased opportunities for service.

The Commission continues until its successors are appointed by the Bishop.

PERCY R. STOCKMAN,
Chairman.

APPENDIX V

Report of the Commission on the Study of the Presbyterian Concordat

The House of Bishops in 1886, two years before the Lambeth Quadilateral, said it is:

"our earnest desire that the Saviour's prayer, 'That we all may be one,' may, in its deepest and truest sense, be speedily fulfilled. That in all things of human ordering or choice, relating to modes of worship and discipline, or to traditional customs, this Church is ready in the spirit of love and humanity to forego all preferences of her own. That this Church does not seek to absorb other Communions, but rather, cooperating with them on the basis of a common Faith and Order, to discountenance schism, to heal the wounds of the Body of Christ, and to promote the charity which is the chief of Christian graces and the visible manifestation of Christ to the world." Following this solemn declaration a Commission on Approaches to Unity was appointed.

In 1937 the General Convention made a definite invitation "to achieve organic unity" to the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The Presbyterian Assembly responded by appointing a Commission to meet with the Commission from the Episcopal Church.

The Joint Commission's first suggestion was the proposed Concordat. When this proposal did not meet with favor or acceptance, the Joint Commission continued its work. In June, 1940, a plan, originating in the Episcopal group, for joint ordination of future ministers from both churches was endorsed by the Joint Commissions. This joint ordination plan, as indeed any plans originating in the joint commissions, should always be considered in the light of what the future united church might be. The commission is working on a sketch of that future church. In the light of the character of the united church of the future, many proposals, which of themselves might appear unwise if taken as isolated steps, may have validity and justification.

Under the present proposal for joint ordination, anyone so ordained would be "ordained and commissioned to preach the word and administer the sacraments in both churches." Such a plan "makes practicable joint congregations and much cooperative service in schools and colleges, in the Army and Navy, in hospitals and other institutions."

We need to keep constantly in mind that the proposal for joint ordination is only a part of a larger plan for unity.

We must also keep constantly in mind that we are not seeking uniformity, but the kind of unity which existed in primitive Christianity where there were many varieties of local organization and liturgy, but where the whole church was one in its convictions, counsels and ministries. We would point out that a similar kind of unity exists within our own Communion at the present time. This unity foreshadows that which can exist among all Christian bodies. It is noteworthy that a practical unity is being manifested today in the work of Army and Navy Chaplains.

The Commission on the Study of the Presbyterian Concordat in submitting this report presents the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Convention accept the report of the Commission on the Study of the Presbyterian Concordat and that the Commission be continued for further study and report to the 1943 Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMISSION ON THE STUDY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CONCORDAT,

APPENDIX W

Report of the Committee on Canons to the Convention of 1942

1. Constitutional Amendment up for Final Action.

At the last Convention there was approved an Amendment to the Constitution the purpose of which is to enable the Convention, by Canon, to make it possible for the larger Parishes to send to the Convention a slightly larger number of Deputies. To bring it before the coming Convention for final action the Committee will offer the following motion:

RESOLVED, That the following Amendment to the Constitution, which was approved by the Convention of 1941, be approved:

"Amend Article IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution by repealing the words beginning, 'Each regularly established,' and ending with the word 'congregation,' and substituting therefor the following:

"Each regularly established Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may send to the Convention Lay Deputies, Communicants of this Church, elected by the Vestry from their own number, or from the congregation, or from their Chapel congregation or congregations, but not exceeding three in number except as hereinafter provided for. The Convention may, from time to time, provide by Canon for the election in the same way of additional Deputies, not exceeding two in number from any Parish, in such relation and proportion to the size or strength of the Parish, including its Chapel congregations, as said Canon may determine. But any Canon providing for such additional Deputies, or changing such provision shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the session at which it is adopted."

The adoption of this Amendment will not change in any respect the voting arrangements unless and until a Canon is passed providing for additional Deputies from some Parishes. Even then there will be no change in relative voting strength when the voting is in an election for a Bishop or anyone else, or by Orders, as the Constitutional provision will still prevail that there be only one vote for each Parish and Mission entitled to vote.

2. Amending the Canon on Business Methods in Church Affairs.

Since our Canon XVI on this subject was adopted the General Convention has legislated on the subject and as, when that body has legislated on any matter its action is that which all in the Church must obey, it becomes timely to bring our Canon in conformity with that of the controlling body. In order to accomplish this, and some other cognate purposes, the Committee on Financial Safeguards prepared Amendments to Canon XVI. Another Committee has prepared a Canon designed to limit the irresponsible creation of indebtedness by the authorities of Parishes, Missions, and other Church organizations. It has seemed to the Committee on Canons that these two proposals could best be handled by submitting to the Convention an entirely rewritten Canon XVI on Business Methods, which would include both the above proposed Canons, the first of which has been endorsed by the Executive Council. The Committee therefore offers the following Amendment to the Canons:

Amend Canon XVI, on Business Methods in Church Affairs, by repealing the same and substituting therefor the following:

CANON XVI

OF BUSINESS METHODS IN CHURCH AFFAIRS

SEC. I. General Requirements.

Every Parish and Mission, every institution within the bounds of this Diocese, which is subject to the authority of the Diocese, and every agency of the Diocese declared by the Executive Council to be included hereunder, shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) Trust and permanent funds and all securities of whatsoever kind shall be placed in the custody of a National Bank, or of a State Bank, Banking Institution, or Trust Company, or with The Church Foundation under a Trust or Agency agreement.

(b) Treasurers and custodians other than those above mentioned shall be adequately bonded.

(c) Such books of account shall be kept as the Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, shall require.

(d) The accounts of the organizations named above shall be annually audited by a Certified Public Accountant. The Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, shall prescribe the scope and character of the audit and shall require a copy of the report of the Auditor to be filed with the Department. The report may include findings and recommendations, which latter the Council may require to be followed. The Council may assume for the Diocese part or all of the expense of the auditing if satisfied that the Parish, Mission or Institution or agency cannot afford to pay all or part thereof.

(e) Every such organization shall make an annual report for the information of the Executive Council and of the members of, or subscribers to the organization. The scope and character of the report, and the manner in which the information therein shall be made known to members and subscribers shall be prescribed by the Council through its Department of Finance.

(f) Buildings and their contents shall be kept adequately insured, and the Executive Council may, from time to time, review the amount of insurance carried, and if it finds the same to be inadequate, may call upon the owners or users of the properties to increase the coverage.

SEC. II. In Organizations Other Than Parishes and Church Congregations

1. All organizations of whatever category under the secular law, other than Parishes and Church congregations, which have their existence or conduct their operations within the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and which hold themselves out as maintained for benevolent, administrative or other purposes under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall, if they desire to continue to operate under such auspices and to be recognized by this Diocese as meeting its requirements:

(a) Make formal declaration of their adherence to the Doctrine and Worship of this Church, and of their submission to its Discipline and Canons:

(b) Declare their willingness to conform to such financial safeguards and practices as may from time to time be prescribed by the Canons adopted by the General Convention or by the Convention of this Diocese, or called for by the Executive Council of this Diocese under the provisions of the next section.

2. In the case of organizations which have expressed their willingness to submit to its requirements, the Executive Council, through the Department of Finance, shall prescribe regulations for the safekeeping of securities, the protection of current funds, the supervision of investments, the auditing of accounts, and other financial safeguards and practices, and it shall be the duty of such organizations when notified of these regulations to put them into effect, and to furnish the Department with such evidence that they are being observed as the Department may from time to time call for.

3. The Executive Council shall report annually to the Convention the action of the Department of Finance under this Canon and the names of all organizations which have met its requirements and the requirements of Sec. I of Canon XVIII, and a list of such organizations shall be published annually in the JOURNAL of the Convention and in The Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

SEC. III. Regulating the Incurring of Indebtedness not Secured on Real Property

1. (a) The authorities of Parishes, Missions, Chapels or other Congregations of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and as such subject to the Canons and Regulations of the General Convention and of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, shall not, except as hereinafter provided for, by borrowing, or making notes or by entering into contracts for furnishing materials or services for permanent improvements, replacements, or additions to real property or equipment, create an indebtedness which, with all other indebtedness of any kind for which the organization is liable, would exceed one hundred and fifty per cent of the average annual income of such organization during the three fiscal years immediately preceding the incurring of the new indebtedness.

(b) They shall not, except as hereinafter provided, incur, in any of the abovementioned ways, an indebtedness in the ordinary operations of their organization which, with any existing unpaid indebtedness for current expenses shall exceed twenty per cent of the total income of the organization during the fiscal year immediately preceding the incurring of the new indebtedness.

2. (a) Authorities of the organizations mentioned above desiring to incur, for the purposes set forth in paragraph 1 of Section I above, indebtedness exceeding the limit fixed therein, must apply to the Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, for permission to do so. Such permission shall not be given unless the organization agrees to amortize the indebtedness under a plan approved by the Council

(b) Authorities of the organizations mentioned above desiring to incur, for the purposes set forth in paragraph 2 of Section I above, an indebtedness exceeding the limit fixed therein, must apply to the Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, for permission to do so. Such permission shall not be given unless the said authorities agree to make provision for the extinguishment of the indebtedness in the annual budgets of their organizations for the two years immediately following its creation.

3. For the purposes of this Section the word "income" as used therein shall not be taken to include receipts for purposes outside the ordinary expenses of the organization, or principal amounts received from or for endowments or from or by bequests, but shall include income from endowments or bequests applicable to the ordinary expenses of the organization, including Diocesan Assessments.

SEC. IV. If any parish or institution shall be dissatisfied with the requirements of the Executive Council under this Canon it may appeal therefrom to a board of five persons to be appointed by the Bishop, to hear that appeal, the decisions of which shall be binding on both parties.

SEC. V. The expense of executing this Canon shall be charged against the Convention and Diocesan Expense Account.

3. Changing the Title of a Department of the Executive Council.

The Executive Council has requested that the name of its Department which has been known as "The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions" be changed to that of "The Department of Christian Social Relations," to conform to the nomenclature of the National Council. We therefore offer the following Amendment to Canon VI on the Executive Council:

Amend Canon VI, Sec. II, paragraph 2, by changing the words, "The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions" to "The Department of Christian Social Relations."

Respectfully submitted,

THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

Supplemental Report of The Committee on Canons Convention of 1942

Since the adoption of Sec. III of Canon XVIII, providing for the formation of a Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions, difficulties have developed in connection with it. It provides that the members of the Corporation shall be elected by the Convention, and does not provide for the filling of any vacancies, one such having already occurred. It is the opinion of the Attorney who is applying for the Charter that it is doubtful if the Court would approve of the proposed corporation if all its members are to be elected by some outside group. It is said that "corporations have no souls," and it would certainly be true of such a corporation that it could not call its soul its own! So, while curing the second defect in the Canon by providing for the filling of vacancies, it was thought well to make such provision for the election of the members as would be likely to be approved by the Court. The method proposed in the following Amendment is that already in use in the cases of The Church Foundation and the Cathedral Chapter.

This matter was not brought to the attention of the Committee in time for printing and circulating before the meeting of the Convention.

Amend Canon XVIII, Sec. III, paragraph 2, by repealing paragraph 2 and substituting therefor the following:

2. To meet the requirements of this Canon the Charter or By-Laws of the Corporation shall provide that there shall be an annual election to fill the places of those Members whose terms shall then expire, and that the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, or that body which it may designate for the purpose, shall have the right to nominate at least two persons for election by the Corporation to fill each of such places, and if it shall have exercised that right, the Corporation shall elect Members from the persons so nominated; and that, in the event of the death or resignation of any Member before the expiration of his term, the surviving Members may elect someone to serve in his place until the next annual meeting of the Corporation.

APPENDIX X

Report of the Corporation for Religious Work in Educational Institutions

At the Diocesan Convention in 1941, the establishment of this Corporation was authorized and the following Directors were elected:

Rev. E. Felix Kloman	William A. Randall
Rev. Charles S. Martin	Dr. D. Stewart Polk
Rev. James H. Jacobson	Robert L. Trescher
Charles Platt, Jr.	Lewis N. Lukens, Jr.
George M. Dallas

The Directors met and elected Mr. Lewis N. Lukens, Jr., President.

The Directors held several meetings in the Spring, all directed to the preparation of a plan of operation, and determined that the work contemplated should be carried on under the direction of seven working committees, each Director acting as Chairman of or associating himself with the work of one or more of these committees.

Committee
Number

1. Committee to assist parishes adjacent to the schools and colleges within the Diocese in strengthening their religious work in these institutions.

   The work of this committee would include encouragement and assistance in the formation of local committees for each school or college; and advice on personnel and techniques.

2. Committee to make intensive study of one college—its needs and opportunities for religious work.

   Dr. Alden Kelley of the National Council has volunteered to make a complete "survey" of one college within the Diocese as kind of a "test" case. What is being done? What should be done?

3. Committee to assemble and train a group of willing and able speakers to go out to the various parishes, and to impress upon the members thereof the importance and attractiveness of this work; and to secure speaking engagements for them.

4. Committee to take charge of liaison between boys and girls from the Diocese who are away at school or college and those in charge of the religious work at the schools and colleges.
5. Committee to arrange conferences at the College of Preachers, Washington, D. C., for the clergymen of the Diocese who are concerned with the work in the schools and colleges as well as any interested laymen.
6. Committee on information. It is necessary that the need and the work should be made known throughout the parish by every available means. In addition to speakers, we hope to use the press, pamphlets, letters, and any other appropriate media.
7. Committee on Finances.

It was quite clear that to carry out any such program as planned, additional manpower was needed. In order to obtain this additional help and to secure the understanding and support of a larger group, the Committee gave a dinner in September, 1941, attended by some twenty-five clergymen and laymen. Mr. Leslie Glenn, the President of the Church Society for College Work, addressed this meeting on the importance of this work as a whole, stressing its opportunities as a field for missionary endeavor. The plans of the Diocesan Corporation were outlined and volunteers requested.

A small booklet on the work was also prepared which is attached to this report and marked Exhibit A.

As a result of this meeting, some fifteen clergymen and laymen volunteered to associate themselves with the various working committees.

The actual work accomplished by the committees might be commented upon briefly.

1. A number of contacts have been made with the schools and colleges within the Diocese. This undertaking is still in progress, but along with it, studies are proceeding of how to strengthen the work in such institutions as have been consulted.
2. Dr. Alden Kelley, with the help of our Committee, has made a complete and intensive study of the situation at Swarthmore College. The Committee received splendid cooperation from the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther, the Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, and from President Nason and other individuals concerned. As the result of the report of this Committee, a number of specific suggestions have been made which will substantially strengthen this work. Dr. Kelley has volunteered, in association with this same Committee, to make a similar study of Bryn Mawr College in the near future.
3. Some thirty requests for speakers on this subject have been received. Thus far, ten speakers have been sent out to various churches in the Diocese, and the reports from the parishes have been universally favorable as to the interest aroused. A number of speakers are booked for the future.
4. The Committee on liaison with boys and girls in college is now working on plans to cover this situation fully, commencing with the Fall of 1942.
5. It was found impractical to arrange a conference at the College of Preachers, but a most successful one was held on April 17th at the Church of The Redeemer, Bryn Mawr. The conference was led by the Rev. Arthur Lee Kinsolving, Canon Earp and the Rev. Charles Martin. It was attended by some 11 clergymen, representing those most immediately concerned, and by some 6 interested laymen. We look for distinct intensifying of the work within the Diocese as a result of this conference.
6. The Chairman of the Committee on Information has been called into the Service. We are making every effort to replace him with a first-class man, experienced in this field.
7. The Committee on Finances has been relatively inactive to date, but we believe the time has come when our group should, through the parishes and individuals, raise each year a substantial sum for this work, and plans are being made accordingly. The Church Society for College Work has offered to cooperate in every way.

The Directors of the Corporation are aware that progress has been slight in comparison both with the need and the opportunity. They bespeak the continued support of the clergy and the laymen of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

LEWIS N. LUKENS, JR.,

President.

APPENDIX Y

Diocesan War Commission

The Diocesan War Commission was appointed by Bishop Taitt on December 18, 1941, with the Rev. Charles Martin as Chairman. Its purpose is to assist the Church in meeting the opportunities and problems created by the war.

To achieve this end most effectively, the Commission is divided into five Committees, as follows:

Ministry to Civilian Defense, the Rev. Dr. E. Frank Salmon, Chairman;

Ministry to Our Armed Forces, the Rev. Edmund B. Wood, Chairman;

Ministry to Defense Population, the Rev. E. Felix Kloman, Chairman;

Ministry to Our Own, the Rev. Harvey D. Butterfield, Chairman;

Army and Navy Chaplains' Fund, Mr. William H. DuBarry, Chairman.

The Committee on Civilian Defense has put the resources of the Church—its buildings, institutions, and man power—at the disposal of defense authorities, at the same time keeping the Diocese aware of ways in which it might cooperate.

Knowing the vital importance of keeping our Church with the men in the service, the Committee on Our Armed Forces has sought to work with the USO and the Red Cross. Thus the men who have gone into the armed forces from our Diocese have been commended to their respective Chaplains, and have also received Prayer Books and war crosses. On Good Shepherd Sunday each man received a letter from the Bishop. Through groups of women from the Girls' Friendly Society and the Woman's Auxiliary entertainment and refreshments have been furnished to the troops stationed in the city. Assistance is being lent to the Chaplain at the Navy Yard and to other Chaplains as they desire it.

Philadelphia is preeminently the defense industry center of the United States. One hundred thousand workers have come or are coming into the city. They are locating near their places of work, in defense housing projects and even in trailer camps. The Defense Population Committee has made a survey and obtained a complete picture of this field. It has made recommendations to the Deans of the several Convocations as to methods of carrying on the work, and is now busy assisting wherever possible.

In these rapidly changing and chaotic times, the Committee on Our Own has sought to aid the Clergy in ministering more effectively to their people. A book of wartime prayers has been issued. Suggestions as to carrying on the ordinary work of the Church in these extraordinary times are continually being made.

The Committee on Army and Navy Funds is seeking to raise from the Diocese the moneys necessary to carry on the work of the National Commission, appointed by the Presiding Bishop, of which Bishop Sherrill, of Massachusetts, is Chairman.

The unusual problems and opportunities before us are recognized by all. That they shall be seized and redeemed in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ is the determination of the War Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK W. BLATZ,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation of North Philadelphia feels keenly the death of their leader and friend, Mrs. T. Leslie Gossling, on October 12, 1941. We are not mourning for her selfishly, but are thinking of her joy and happiness in her new Home.

The three stated meetings held in the last year were well attended. More and more are the members realizing how interesting the work for our missions can be. While the missions were our chief concern many women of North Philadelphia Convocation took part in Episcopal Day of Philadelphia Educational Week for the Blind and in the May Fete at Episcopal Hospital, giving generously of their time and money on both occasions.

In October a Quiet Morning was held. Mrs. Charles Hunsicker conducted a beautiful devotional service, and Mrs. William H. Jefferys spoke of the diocesan educational work at the luncheon which followed.

Even the need for brevity cannot prevent my saying just a word of appreciation of the ever helpful understanding and sympathetic direction we received from our dean, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman, whose resignation took effect at the end of his second term of office, December 31, 1941.

My sincere thanks to him and to the officers and delegates of the Woman's Aid for the splendid cooperation I have received from them during my first term of office.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY P. HARRISON,
President.
